

MARY
WASHINGTON
COLLEGE
BULLETIN

ALUMNAE NEWS

JUNE 1970

Volume 1 Number 7

Plea For World Peace Keynotes 1970 Commencement Exercises

Degrees were conferred upon 408 Mary Washington College seniors in Commencement exercises at the College Sunday morning, June 7. The traditional ceremonies were held on the lawn of Mary Ball Hall on the campus before an audience of more than 2,500 parents, guests, alumnae and faculty members.

Climaxing a tumultuous year on college campuses, the ceremonies were dignified and orderly and projected a quiet plea for peace in a variety of ways.

As the program began Chancellor Greilet C. Simpson noted that some members of the graduating class had asked for and received the privilege of wearing white arm bands with their academic regalia in a symbolic plea for peace. About sixty seniors and several faculty members made their individual pleas in this manner.

The Chancellor added that those who chose not to wear the arm bands shared the same dedication and heartfelt desire for peace.

In a further departure from tradition, Chancellor Simpson called upon a member of the graduating class, Miss Kathleen S. O'Neill, to give the invocation. Miss O'Neill, the outgoing President of the Student Government Association, chose a passage from an address by the late Robert F. Kennedy calling upon the generation of the future to "make gentle the life of the world."

There was yet a third departure from the traditional ceremonies when Dr. Simpson declined to deliver a formal message to the seniors and instead asked them and those attending the exercises to join with him in offering a prayer for peace written by St. Francis of Assisi and given as the invocation for several years.

St. Francis, the Chancellor mused, must have been considered something of a revolutionary or radical in his day, for he willingly gave up success and material well being to dedicate his life to mankind. "I hope," he told the graduates, "that this prayer will be your message to all those you leave behind on this day of your graduation."

In receiving their diplomas there were 17 seniors who were awarded final honors and 43 who graduated with academic distinction. Final honors are presented to those graduates who maintain a 3.75 average or better during their junior and senior years at the College. General academic attainment is recognized through the awards of Distinction, High Distinction, and Highest Distinction, based solely on the student's academic average at Mary Washington College. In addition, 12 students received departmental honors for superior achievement in their major fields.

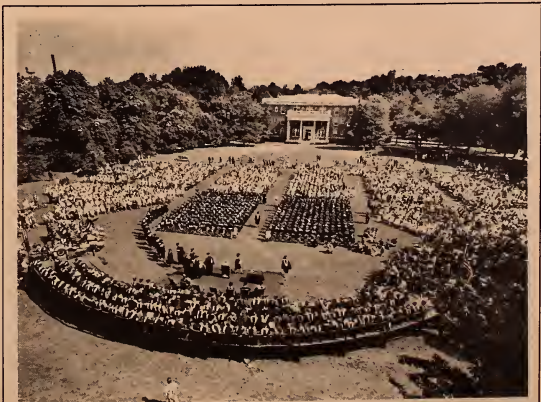

Darden Award Presented To Carol Peterson

Miss Carol Anne Peterson, a classics major from Colonial Heights, Virginia, was named the 1970 recipient of the Darden Award, which goes each year to the member of the graduating class with the highest academic average.

The daughter of Col. and Mrs. C. D. Peterson of Colonial Heights, Miss Peterson compiled a 3.93 grade point average during her four years at Mary Washington College.

The award was established in 1960 in honor of Colgate W. Darden, Jr., who was president of the University of Virginia from 1947 to 1959. It consists of a medal designed by Gaetano Cecere, formerly a faculty member at the College, and also a cash sum.

In addition to receiving the top academic award, Miss Peterson also received final honors, honors in classics, and was graduated with highest distinction. As a student at Mary Washington College, she was a member of Eta Sigma Phi, national honorary classics fraternity and Alpha Phi Sigma, national honorary scholastic fraternity.

MWC Commencement, 1970

DISTINGUISHED ALUMNA, 1970

Mrs. Margaret Lodge Copes, a member of the Class of 1932, has been named the recipient of the Mary Washington College Alumnae Association's Distinguished Alumna Award for 1970.

The fourth recipient of the award initiated in 1956, she was honored at the annual homecoming weekend earlier this month and presented with an engraved silver platter to commemorate her selection.

The award is made each year to an alumna who, in the opinion of her fellow alumnae, has made an outstanding contribution in such areas as their profession, civic activities, creative contributions in the arts or sciences, or humanitarian causes. Selection by the Awards Committee is based upon accomplishment in one or several of these areas.

A resident of Davis Wharf in Accomack County on Virginia's Eastern Shore Mrs. Copes is currently serving as chairman of the State Hospital Board, which oversees the operation of the State's mental hospitals. Named to the Board by Governor Albertus S. Harrison in 1962, she was the first woman to serve on the Board and when named chairman last year she became the first woman so named. In addition, she has been named a member of the Governor's Council on Health in Virginia.

The mother of two daughters and a son, she has been owner and operator of The Copes Ice and Coal Company in Tasley, Virginia, since the death of her husband, Peter Davis Copes, in 1961.

Long active in the civic affairs of her local community, Mrs. Copes last year was presented the First Citizen's Award by the Eastern Shore Jaycees. It was the first time a woman had been named recipient of the award presented by the chapter only when it feels there is a citizen in the community who merits the recognition.

Mrs. Copes is currently a member of the Board of Directors of the Salvation Army, a member of the state Board of Sponsors of the Children's Home Society of Virginia, and a member of the Board of Directors of the Society for Crippled Children of Virginia.

As an alumna of Mary Washington College, Mrs. Copes has formerly served as President of the Association and as a member of the Board of Directors and the Executive Committee. She is also a founder, and former director and president of Eastern Shore Chapter of the Association.

Previous recipients of the Distinguished Alumna Award include Mrs. Allen Hirschman Belford '53, in 1966; Miss Clara Boyd Wheeler '31, in 1967; and Catherine Dryden August '37, in 1969. No award was made in 1968.

Summer Session Features Institutes

Humanities: For the Students

Mary Washington College will be the site of a unique summer project aimed at introducing high school students to the humanities and the world of creativity.

Called the Humanities Institute, the program is planned by the nearby Stafford County School Division and funded by the federal government under Title III of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act.

Approximately 75 academically talented high school students from Stafford County will participate in the six weeks session. In addition, some 100 students from other parts of the state will attend the opening three-week segment of the program under the auspices of the Virginia Commission of the Arts and Humanities.

Both parts of the program will be directed by Mrs. Laura V. Sumner, Professor and Chairman of the Department of Classics and Director of the Summer Session at the College. Mrs. Sumner directed a similar program for the Fairfax County schools in 1965.

Entitled "Exploring Creative Frontiers," the program is designed to help encourage creativity and a continuing interest in cultural activities. The summer institute at MWC is one of eight projects to be funded by the federal government over a three year period.

The session will include discussions, lectures, and opportunities for creative activities in the various arts. Field trips to galleries and museums or to hear orchestras or see dramatic productions will supplement the on-campus activities.

Teachers from the Stafford County School system will staff the county portion of the program, while MWC faculty members will be used as consultants and for special activities in both sections of the Institute.

The announcement of the Institute was well received, both in the county and throughout the state. Total applications in both cases far exceeded the number of spaces available for the summer session.

History: For the Teachers

Mary Washington College, in cooperation with the School of General Studies of the University of Virginia, is offering a six-weeks Institute for Teachers of American History this summer for history teachers from Fredericksburg and the surrounding counties.

Twenty-four history teachers from area schools have been selected to attend the Institute which will run from June 22 to July 31. Tuition expenses for those invited to attend will be assumed by the Virginia State Department of Education.

Recognizing the need for continual upgrading and revitalization of courses in American history being taught in the state's secondary schools, two-thirds of the institute time will be devoted directly to two integrated courses in twentieth-century American history, while the remaining third of the course will be devoted to a review of recent thinking in the area of social studies curriculum and materials.

There will be three formal course offerings at the Institute: Twentieth-Century History of the United States; Methods, Sources and Materials of History; and Theoretical Foundations for Teaching History and Social Studies. Each course will carry three undergraduate or graduate credits and each student will take all three courses. Undergraduate credit for the work will be available to all; graduate credit will be accorded to those who meet criteria for admission to the Graduate Program of the School of General Studies of the University of Virginia.

Alumnae Council Schedules Fall Convention

The Annual Convention of the MWC Alumnae Council will be held at the College sometime in the fall, probably the third Saturday in October or early in November. A definite date will be announced in the next Alumnae News.

The meeting will be open to voting delegates from each chapter and class. All interested alumnae are urged to attend. Others attending will include members of the faculty, administration and student body.

The purpose of the Council is to coordinate the activities of chapters; to serve as a forum for discussion of Association projects and policies; and to formulate and submit recommendations to the Board of Directors, and to further understanding between the alumnae and the College.

Mary Washington College Bulletin, Alumnae News Issue, Volume 1, Number 7, June, 1970. Published monthly except August and November by Mary Washington College of the University of Virginia, Fredericksburg, Virginia, 22401. Second-class postage paid at the Post Office, Fredericksburg, Virginia.

Chicago Meeting

The next meeting of the Chicago Area Alumnae Chapter will be Thursday, October 8, at 7:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Robert C. Warren (Mary Cottingham '50), 126 Old Oak Road, North Barrington, Illinois 60060.

Alumnae Association Establishes College's First Endowed Chair

The Mary Washington College Alumnae Association has established an "endowed chair" fund, which will be used to bring eminent scholars or personalities to Mary Washington for teaching and lecturing.

It is the first endowed position at the College and plans call for the implementation of the proposal on a limited basis during the 1970-71 school session.

The action is the realization of a goal set by the Association in 1965 when it initiated the Quest XX insurance program with the hope of building a sufficient fund to endow a faculty position. The Quest XX fund now has $64,000 in policies which is not enough in itself to support an endowment. As a result of the project, however, a special ad hoc committee was organized to consider other alternatives and on the basis of its recommendation the Association voted to initiate the project now on a limited basis.

The recipient will be known as the Distinguished Visitor in Residence and the first endowment will be presented in honor of Eileen Kramer Dodd, Professor of Psychology who retires this year, and her husband, the late James Harvey Dodd, who was a Professor of Economics and Business Administration at the College for 34 years.

In acting upon the recommendation of the ad hoc committee composed of Ruby York Weinbrecht '48, Elsie E. Clark '51, Myrtle Dean Frances '62, Jaee Howard Patrick '48, and Ann Louise Perinichief '67, the Director of Alumnae Affairs, and Michael Houston, Assistant to the Chancellor, the Association's Board of Directors expressed the feeling that it would be desirable to begin immediately to make an annual contribution to the intellectual life of the College, even on a limited basis. As more funds become available an expanded program will be considered.

As approved by the Board, specific arrangements will be worked out after the individual has been selected. Consideration will be given his field of endeavor and the role which is believed will provide the most desirable and effective stimulation to the academic life of the College.

As a means of arousing interest in the program and to assure maximum participation by all members of the College community, the Board proposed that the selection of the Visitors be the joint responsibility of a Student-Faculty-Alumnae Selection Committee. This Committee will be organized in the near future and the search for the first recipient will get underway.

College Fees, Salaries Increased for 1970-71

The University of Virginia Board of Visitors has approved increases in student fees and faculty salaries at Mary Washington College for the 1970-71 school session.

Acting on the recommendation of Mary Washington Chancellor Grellet C. Simpson, the Board, meeting in Charlottesville earlier this month, confirmed a fee increase which had earlier been proposed in a letter to all students and their parents. The increase totals $60 for Virginia students and $115 for students who are not residents of the Commonwealth. It brings the total costs for Virginia students to $1470 and for out-of-state students to $2225. Ten dollars of the income will go toward faculty salaries while the remainder will provide funds for the operation of the educational program of the College.

In acting upon faculty salaries the Board accepted two recommendations from Chancellor Simpson involving the faculty pay scale and approved his proposal that additional adjustments be considered in the fall if the budget situation at that time will permit such a move.

The action Friday set a $100 annual increase for all members of the faculty and established a change in the existing scale by dropping the bottom step in each of the five academic ranks and adding a step to the top of each category. This, in effect, gives assistant instructors, instructors, and assistant professors normal merit increases of $100 plus the $100 overall raise, and associate professor and professors will receive $400 merit increments plus the $100 overall payment.

Instructional salary averages are established by the Governor's office for each institution of higher education in Virginia. The overall figure for 1970-71 at Mary Washington College was set at $11,900. Chancellor Simpson indicated that although $10 of the fee increase was specifically earmarked for faculty pay, it was still impossible to meet the recommended average. He did indicate, however, that he was hopeful that the budget reappraisal in October would reveal sufficient income from the student fees to bring the College's pay structure closer to the figure authorized by the Governor.

In the revised scales faculty salaries will range from $7,100 to $15,500, compared to a range of $6,700 to $15,000 for the current school year. The revision marks the twelfth time in the last fifteen years that faculty salaries at the College have been adjusted.

As in the past, the figures are for a ten-month period from September to June and do not include salaries for faculty members teaching the summer session.

In asking for the fee increases Chancellor Simpson noted that the 1970 General Assembly provided little improvement for operating funds for the College for the 1970-72 biennium. The funds appropriated for 1970-71, he stated, are actually less than the budgeted level of expenditures for the educational program for 1969-70.

RUBY YORK WEINBRECHT NAMED TO HEAD ALUMNAE

Mrs. Ruby York Weinbrecht '48 has been elected President of the Mary Washington College Alumnae Association for 1970-71. She succeeds Mrs. Kathy Friedman Levinson '63 who has served as President since 1968.

A native of Spartanburg, South Carolina, Mrs. Weinbrecht served this past year as Fund Chairman for the Association and has been a member of the Board of Directors for two years.

She is currently employed by the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission in Washington, D.C., and resides in McLean, Virginia, with her husband Mr. Standau Weinbrecht. She has previously served in an editorial capacity with the Department of Commerce and with the Library of Congress.

In addition to a B.A. degree received from Mary Washington, Mrs. Weinbrecht holds an M.A. degree from George Peabody College and has done post-graduate work at the Graduate Library School of the University of Chicago.

Other officers named at the meeting which coincided with homecoming on June 5-7 were Ellen Duschbeck '64, first vice president (fund); Isabel Gordon '42, second vice president (homecoming); and Olivia Wheeler McCullum '36, third vice president (Alumnae Council).

Named to serve as the Chancellor's Apollonee was Mrs. Irene Lundy Brown '39, succeeding Mrs. Arabelle Laws Arrington '41. Miss Mary Ellen Stephenson, Professor and Chairman of the Department of Modern Foreign Languages, was renamed faculty representative and Miss Patricia Ives Stoner will serve as the senior class representative.

Newly elected members of the Board of Directors include Lucy Hauston Christian '26; Sally Moore Fox '68; Carol Pridden Gill '57; Susan Rutan Joehnk '63, and Sally Kay Souder '66.

Departing members of the Board include Judith Finger Bradley '64, Eloise Elizabeth Clark '51, Adele Crowgey Giles '37, Ethel Hester Nash '14, and Dorothy Booth Sanders '55.

Molly Parrish '27 Named to Chair MWC Committee

Mrs. Molly Vaughan Parrish, a member of the Class of '29 and a member of the University of Virginia Board of Visitors since 1964 has been named Chairman of the Mary Washington College Committee of the Board of Visitors for the coming year.

Board members named to the MWC Committee for the first time include Brownie E. Polly, Jr. and Donald E. Santarelli, who were appointed to the Board in February by Governor Linwood Holton, and C. Walter Barrett.

Renamed to the Committee for another term were Mrs. Emma Ziegler Brown, a member of the Class of '40, and Richard S. Cross.

Ruby York Weinbrecht, Association President

Honors, Achievement Mark 1969-70 Session

Miss Erla Catherine Holloway, a rising senior at Mary Washington College, was one of twenty students named to take part in Governor Linwood Holton's new summer programs for interns in government.

The students, representing thirteen colleges and six high schools, were selected from approximately 350 applicants from throughout the state. In addition to serving this summer, the interns will form the nucleus of the Youth Advisory Council announced by Governor Holton in April.

Miss Holloway is an English major at MWC and a graduate of George Wythe High School in Richmond. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Holloway, Jr., of Richmond.

The idea behind the summer program is to give a representative cross-section of Virginia youth first hand exposure to the government and organization of state government.

The Youth Council will have the twofold purpose of opening channels of communication between the state government and Virginia's youth and of giving the youth of the state a means to participate in the solution of problems about which they are concerned.

The list of 20 was selected from applications submitted in response to a letter to all student government presidents in the state asking them to make recommendations from their schools.

The Mary Washington College student newspaper, THE BULLET, was named the best women's college newspaper in the Sixth Annual Southeastern College Newspaper Competition conducted by Hollins College earlier this year.

In addition to receiving this honor awarded by THE ROANOKE TIMES, the weekly newspaper also received THE NORFOLK VIRGINIAN-PILOT and LEDGER STAR award for the best editorial page and received honorable mention for the best feature writing award which is presented by the CHARLESTON GAZETTE and SUNDAY GAZETTE-MAIL.

The annual competition is open to all colleges and universities in the six-state area including Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee, West Virginia, and Georgia.

Attending the awards banquet in Roanoke to accept the awards were Barbara Halliday of Wilmington, Delaware, editor of THE BULLET during the second semester this year and Anne Gordon Grever of Richlands, Virginia, editor the first semester.

A senior student and a distinguished 1968 alumna of Mary Washington College presented papers before the Chemistry Section of the Virginia Academy of Science in Richmond on May 7th and 8th.

Anne L. Bates, senior chemistry major discussed her research, which was directed by Dr. Bernard L. Mahoney, Associate Professor of Chemistry, concerning the composition of Rappahannock River water as part of a larger study of the ecology of the river being undertaken with the cooperation of several departments at the College.

Ann Scott Lankey, winner of the 1968 Darden Medal and Thomas Jefferson Cup, reported on research concerning the structure of some lipids in milk. This work was done under the supervision of Dr. Lawrence Wisner, Department Chairman, as a senior honors project and involved the use of radioactive venous as a selective reagent in the structural studies. Mrs. Lankey is presently on leave from the A. H. Robins Co. to complete her M.S. in chemistry at VPI.

This was the fifth consecutive year the Chemistry Department has been represented in the research program of the Academy making a total of twelve papers presented during the period.

Miss Elizabeth Jane Wilson, a junior chemistry major at Mary Washington College, has been awarded a fellowship to attend the Argonne National Laboratory Honors Program at Argonne, Illinois.

Operated jointly by the University of Chicago and the Atomic Energy Commission, Argonne National Laboratory conducts basic scientific research in many broad areas including radiation chemistry, nuclear chemistry, and high energy physics.

Miss Wilson was one of thirty students from the fields of physics, chemistry, and the life sciences selected in national competition among college and universities for participation in this program.

The honors program begins in September, 1970, and continues for fifteen weeks, approximately half of which is devoted to research and the remainder to lectures and seminars. Miss Wilson's research will involve a low temperature study of the effect of high energy radiation on liquids.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. Holt Wilson of Delmar, Delaware, Miss Wilson is a graduate of Delmar High School.

Two Mary Washington College students have been selected to participate in the 1970-71 Sweet Briar Junior Year in France.

Admitted to the program were Miss Carol Jean Hazucha, a history major from Upper Nyack, New York, and Miss Christine Anne Stover, a French major from Falls Church, Virginia. Miss Hazucha, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Hazucha, is a graduate of Nyack High School, Nyack, New York. Miss Stover, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis W. Stover, is a graduate of J. E. B. Stuart High School.

The two are among 100 students from 50 colleges and universities who have been admitted to this educational program which has been administered by Sweet Briar College since 1948.

After arriving in France next September, the students will spend six weeks in Tours, provincial capital of the chateau district, for orientation to French academic methods and social customs. Late in October they will enroll in the winter term at the University of Paris and affiliated institutions. In both cities they will live with French families.

CHRONOLOGY:

Following is a chronology and description of the events that occurred at Mary Washington College after President Nixon reported U.S. military involvement in Cambodia on April 30, and the deaths of four students at Kent State University in Ohio on May 4.

May 1—Mary Washington College Student Association President Marilyn Morgan endorsed a demand for the impeachment of President Nixon made by the National Student Association. In doing so, however, Miss Morgan stated that she gave her support as an individual and not as a representative of the student body. Miss Mary Lee Hearn, NSA representative from the College, said that the call for impeachment was a symbolic maneuver. The MWC student newspaper, The Bullet, editorially endorsed the impeachment effort on May 4.

May 4—Between three and five hundred students, faculty, townspeople, and others rallied in the evening on Ball Circle to discuss the extension of U.S. military activity into Cambodia. Students began to lay plans for the week's activities. Some indicated they planned to boycott classes for the rest of the week and spend the time instead on protest activities. They indicated that this was to be a personal decision and that no effort would be made to force the strike on students who did not wish to participate.

Other students attended the gathering to say that they opposed the strike and that they would take legal action against professors who did not hold classes and against the State if their rights to an education were jeopardized by the protest.

May 5—The first in a series of panel discussions on Cambodia and Southeast Asia was held, followed by a memorial service for the students killed at Kent State University.

Plans and preparations were made to picket Mrs. Nixon who was scheduled to visit Kenmore and the James Moore Law Office in Fredericksburg the following day. Protesters planned to march at both historic sites and to present a petition to Mrs. Nixon expressing their concern over the war in Southeast Asia. In preparation for the demonstration, a student screening committee was set up to establish dress regulations for the march and to approve the wording on signs to be carried. Local police officials issued the group a parade permit.

A group opposed to the protest indicated that they would urge Mrs. Nixon to cancel the visit. Late in the afternoon the White House announced that Mrs. Nixon was cancelling her visit because "she understands that demonstrations are a possibility in the local community regardless of her presence."

May 6—About 25 MWC students and local youths staged a peaceful march to the main Post Office (which houses the area Draft Board) in Fredericksburg and picketed briefly without incident before returning to the campus.

A contingent of seven MWC students active in the protest movement met with State Delegate Benjamin H. Woodbridge, Jr., to discuss the protest and his objections to it. Mr. Woodbridge had earlier stated that those students and faculty members demonstrating at Mrs. Nixon's visit should be dismissed and he wrote to Governor Linwood Holton asking for an investigation of the administrations of every law payer-owned college or university in Virginia.

About 300 students signed a letter to Mrs. Nixon apologizing and expressing their regrets that she found it necessary to cancel her visit to Fredericksburg. The letter, circulated by the Young Americans for Freedom, was intended to express the feelings of the students over her cancellation regardless of their views on the President's decision concerning Cambodia.

Petitions in opposition to the Cambodian intervention were circulated in the local community and additional panel discussions were held on the campus.

May 7—A rock concert was held in the amphitheatre on the campus to raise money to support a planned march to Washington to attend the mass rally on Saturday, May 9.

Panel discussions, the circulation of petitions and other protest activities continued.

May 8—Del. Woodbridge publicly objected to the use of the amphitheatre for the purpose of raising money to support the anti-war protest.

Some 80 students began a march to Washington and the protest rally scheduled there the next day. The march proceeded up U.S. Route 1 to Alexandria, where the students were accommodated and fed by residents of Holm Hills Subdivision.

Leaflets calling for communitywide consideration, not only of the political implications, but of the deeper moral issues of war and the U.S.'s involvement in Cambodia were distributed to local churches. Several ministers indicated that the leaflets were passed on to the appropriate persons and that discussions were planned in young adult Sunday School classes.

May 9—About 140 students and several faculty members participated in the Washington, D.C., protest rally. There were no incidents involving either students or faculty members.

May 13—The MWC faculty rejected by a narrow margin a student proposal to lift requirements on class attendance and final examinations for the semester in order that those who wished to do so could devote the time to activities for or against the protest.

May 14—MWC faculty members reviewed current policies and procedures which would allow students to continue national political involvement and approved two additional alternatives for the same purpose.

The two approved measures allowed the students to change grading in an elective course to pass-fail and extended the cut-off date for dropping a course if a student had a passing grade.

Protest at MWC

COMMENT:

MWC Chancellor Grellet C. Simpson said he was distressed that Mrs. Nixon did not come. He had hoped that she would come since "the girls themselves... would have treated her with respect" even though some students do not agree with her husband's views.

The girls had tried to make it a dignified protest," he said. They wanted to show that you can protest and not be rowdy, he said. He had been reassured that it would not be ugly or discourteous.

Simpson indicated he felt that there must be reasons other than the MWC student protest for cancelling the trip.

*The Free Lance-Star
May 6, 1970*

The Kenmore Association, which owns and operates Kenmore—the colonial home Mrs. Nixon had planned to visit—called the threatened picketing of the President's wife a "travesty on the American way of life."

A resolution passed by the association, expressing "to the nation our sorrow and concern", that Mrs. Nixon was unable to come to Kenmore Wednesday as scheduled because the threatened demonstration, declared:

"It is very distressing to us that we were unable to receive the wife of the President of the United States at Kenmore, the ancestral home of Col. Fielding Lewis and Betty Washington Lewis, the only sister of George Washington, the first president of the United States.

"Because Kenmore stands to teach all ages the loyalty, sense of duty and love of country shown by our forefathers, we feel very strongly that this is a travesty on the American way of life and should be so proclaimed."

*The Free Lance-Star
May 7, 1970*

Del. Benjamin H. Woodbridge, Jr. today said he is writing Gov. Linwood Holton "arguing that he appoint a commission to investigate the administration of every taxpayer-operated college or university in Virginia."

Woodbridge said he would suggest "this commission make recommendations for changes which will assure the taxpayers of Virginia that their money is not being squandered on educational facilities for those who come not to learn but to undermine the very educational system which provides them sanctuary and a forum for their childish rantings."

"The reputation of our city and our area has been severely damaged by the vocal, immature and shabby minority at Mary Washington College whose action forced the cancellation of Mrs. Nixon's visit."

"It appears to me that we have at Mary Washington the same kind of situation as in other places such as Yale, Harvard and Berkeley — a weak-willed administration too timid to take positive and forceful action to see that its students are subject to discipline of a reasonable nature."

*The Free Lance-Star
May 7, 1970*

Fredericksburg Mayor Josiah P. Rowe, III, said he felt there had been "an unfortunate overreaction in the community" to threatened demonstrations by Mary Washington College students when Mrs. Richard Nixon was supposed to visit the city recently. He said he felt it was "regrettable" that the visit had to be cancelled since "there was no way of knowing at the time how much of a demonstration was planned." He said he felt the students planning the demonstration were doing everything possible to keep it peaceful and orderly.

"We have no real problem at Mary Washington College, as far as I'm concerned," said Rowe, although a better dialogue between students, faculty, the administration and the community might be desirable.

*The Free Lance-Star
May 15, 1970*

As another Mary Washington College Class prepares to graduate, one's thoughts turn back to the episodes of a month and a year ago, two incidents that help explain why so many of the nation's youth feel a sense of alienation.

Last year when Gen. Lewis B. Hershey, then director of Selective Service, was to make a speech in the Fredericksburg area a group of MWC students announced their intention to picket the Hershey speech in a protest against the Vietnam war and what they viewed as inequities in the draft.

The Hershey appearance was cancelled — by local persons connected with the dinner, not by Hershey who has seen so many demonstrations that one more wouldn't have ruffled his feathers. In the wake of the cancellation came all kinds of vituperation directed against the MWC students who dared to try to exercise their constitutional rights.

(For the record let it be noted that Hershey is no longer draft director and the draft has been modified, thanks in large part to the attention the nation's young people focused on the issue.)

Just a month ago a visit to Fredericksburg by Mrs. Richard Nixon was cancelled. It was called off apparently because of antiwar meetings that were taking place at the college and a proposal by a group of Mary Washington students to present to Mrs. Nixon a petition protesting the widening of the Indochina war.

There has never been a moment of violence in connection with any of the recent demonstrations at MWC or any of the minor protests staged in the city by the students. One can only wonder what the reasons were for the cancellation of the Pat Nixon visit; Mary Washington College's history of non-violence and the dignity with which the students have conducted their demonstrations certainly didn't warrant saying to the First Lady, "Don't come."

When the Pat Nixon visit was cancelled, again came the vituperation. And again the loud-mouth complainers conveniently overlooked the fact that the college students were asking only the privilege of exercising their constitutional rights.

(At a White House tea Thursday two young mothers gave Mrs. Nixon a note asking her help in persuading her husband to end the Indochina war; the word didn't end.)

"Work within the system!" We tell our young people. And then when a group of them at MWC proposes to work within the system they are subjected to scathing verbal attacks. No wonder many young people are discouraged these days.

At a time when violence and turmoil has overtaken many of the nation's college campuses, Fredericksburg should be proud of Mary Washington College and its students whose protests have been peaceful.

*Editorial, The Free Lance-Star
June 6, 1970*

March on Washington

CROUSHORE NAMED DEAN OF COLLEGE

Dr. James H. Croushore, a member of the Mary Washington College faculty and staff since 1947, has been named Dean of the College, succeeding Dr. Reginald W. Whidden who retires prior to the 1970-71 school session.

Dr. Croushore, who was named to the post in April by Chancellor Greilet C. Simpson, has been Associate Dean of the College since 1967 and served as Chairman of the Department of English for ten years prior to that.

A member of Phi Beta Kappa, he earned A.B. and A.M. degrees from Lehigh University and holds a Ph.D. degree from Yale University. He is a member of Pi Delta Epsilon, and the Modern Language Association.

Before coming to Mary Washington College, Dr. Croushore taught at Mount Union College, Carnegie Institute of Technology, and Lehigh University. As a member of Phi Beta Kappa he served as chairman of the steering committee at Mary Washington which has submitted a petition for a chapter at the College.

In announcing Dr. Croushore's appointment as Dean of the College, Mary Washington Chancellor Greilet C. Simpson said that an Assistant Dean would be announced at a later date.

Dr. Whidden, who has served as Dean of the College since 1967, is retiring upon completion of 27 years service, having joined the faculty as a Professor of English in 1943. He was named Assistant Dean in 1954 and elevated to Associate Dean in 1960, prior to succeeding Dr. Edward Alvey, Jr. as Dean of the College in 1967.

James H. Croushore, Dean-Designate

Vicky Floyd '70 Wins Summer Internship

Miss Victoria Ann Floyd '70 has been selected by the United States Civil Service Commission to participate in the Washington Summer Intern program for college students. She is one of four-hundred students selected from more than 1,400 nominees from 600 of the nation's colleges and universities.

Those selected will spend the summer working in one of the federal agencies in Washington, D.C. Selections were made primarily on the basis of matching individual backgrounds, abilities, and fields of study to the requirements of the positions to be filled. Miss Floyd has been assigned to work in the Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

A political science major, Miss Floyd is the daughter of Lt. Col. and Mrs. Harry A. Floyd of Arlington, Virginia. She is a graduate of Washington and Lee High School in Arlington. At Mary Washington College, Miss Floyd was a member of Mortar Board, national senior honor society, and served this year as editor of THE BATTLEFIELD, the college yearbook.

Earlier this year, Miss Floyd received honorable mention in the national Woodrow Wilson Fellowship competition, and in 1968 she was accorded Intermediate Honor by the College, signifying an overall "A" average at Mary Washington during her freshman and sophomore years.

Following graduation in June and the completion of the summer internship, Miss Floyd will attend graduate school.

Rare Book Gifts Honor Departing Administrators

The Mary Washington College Alumnae Association, with an anonymous friend of the College, has presented a number of rare books to E. Lee Trinkle Library in honor of three departing administrative officials of the College.

Honored were Reginald W. Whidden, retiring Dean of the College; Edgar E. Woodward, retiring Comptroller; and Emily A. Holloway, resigning Director of Student Affairs.

Presented in honor of Dr. Whidden was James Boswell's The Life of Samuel Johnson, L. L. D. printed in London in 1791 with Additions and Corrections issued in 1793. The two-volume set is a first edition of the greatest biography written in English.

Commemorating Mr. Woodward's retirement was the presentation of The American Drawings of John White 1577-1590 with Drawings of European and Oriental Subjects edited by Paul Hope Holtz and David Beers Quinn and printed in London, in 1964. This two-volume set is the first edition of the collected drawings and paintings by John White, leader of the "Lost Colony" Expedition and grandfather of Virginia Dare, first child born in English North America. The pictures are the first of the Indians and natural life of what was then Virginia and is now North Carolina.

Presented in honor of Mrs. Holloway was Designs for the Pavilion at Brighton Humbly Inscribed to His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales by Humphrey Repton and his sons, J. A. Repton and G. S. Repton. This first edition, printed in London in 1808 is considered a major work in the history of English landscape architecture.

TJ CUP WINNER

Miss Marilyn Louise Preble, an American Studies major from Leesburg, Virginia, was named the 1970 recipient of the Thomas Jefferson Cup, awarded each year by the Mary Washington College Alumnae Association.

The award goes to that member of the senior class who, during her years at Mary Washington College, has distinguished herself by academic achievement and outstanding service to the College.

The annual presentation was initiated in 1944 to commemorate the affiliation of Mary Washington College with the University of Virginia.

Miss Preble, who plans to attend law school next year, is a graduate of Loudoun County High School and the daughter of Col. and Mrs. Merle Preble of Leesburg. Named to WHO'S WHO AMONG STUDENTS IN AMERICAN COLLEGES AND UNIVERSITIES this year, she is a dean's list student and has been an active participant in the affairs of the College.

As a sophomore she served as a student member on the ad hoc committee charged with considering and planning the College's shift to a five-day week. Last year, she served on the Faculty Student Committee on Latin American Studies, and this most recent school year she was one of three students who served on the ad hoc Committee on Curriculum, Degree Requirements and Student Course Load.

Emeritus Status Accorded Retirees

Four retiring members of the Mary Washington College faculty have been elected to the rank of Professor Emeritus.

Accorded the honor by the University of Virginia Board of Visitors were Miss Guendolyn A. Beiler, Mrs. Eileen K. Dodd, Mr. Reginald W. Whidden, and Mr. Edgar E. Woodward.

In order to be eligible for Emeritus status, a faculty member must have served the College for at least fifteen years and retire while holding the rank of professor. Those honored have accumulated a total of 123 years of service at the college.

'12 Jeannette Hess
609 Hawke Street
Fredericksburg 22401

'13 Lucy Kennedy Boyle
(Mrs. Wallace H.)
Ice Pond Road
Mineral 23117

Aene Latsane Ware Bedinger
(Mrs. Samuel H.)
"Riveredge"
Dunnville 22454

The spring issue of the MWC Bulletin carried a nice article on Mrs. Nina C. Bushnell. Mrs. Bushnell was a strong believer in decency and order and felt that students came to college to acquire knowledge and not to educate the faculty. Most of us felt better when our daughters were under her supervision.

Lucy Kennedy Boyle—Enjoying good health and looking forward to the celebration of her Golden Wedding Anniversary in June.

Had a note from Anne Nicobles who came along through "Camille" and says she is coming up this way soon.

Loisette Broadwitt retired a good many years ago but still lives a very active life. She writes very interesting letters and has made of the U.S. and her many activities in life, including a strong liking and ability for gardening.

Alice Chilton Chowning writes that she is still enjoying life and is planning to attend the 1970 Homecoming.

Aene Latsane Ware Bedinger is summing at her home on the Rappahannock, enjoying her grandchildren, and making plans to attend this year's Homecoming, as she has done for seven years past.

We haven't heard from Julia Ralston Urquhart recently but understand that she will be at the Homecoming.

Fannie Tyree Kennedy is still at the Louisa Health Center, but feels well, feels well. She contributes regularly to the NWC Alumnae Fund, has frequent visits from various ones of the many students who has taught in past years, many of whom say that "she is a fine teacher they ever had", and enjoys life despite her disability.

We wrote members of our class last spring requesting personal news about their lives and suggesting contributions to the Alumnae Fund. We received several interesting letters and we understand that the response to our request for Fund donations was excellent.

Does any one know the married last name of Winnie Walker? She is supposed to be in Richmond but we do not have her address. Perhaps Buford Lyne or Ora Oress can help out.

Again we ask you to send in a few lines, or more, of news about you and yours. It helps very much in getting up this column, which we hope that you enjoy reading. One of the younger alumnae wrote that she enjoyed the 12 column because it indicated "that we were not, as yet a bunch of doddering old ladies waiting for the sun to go down".

Write to either one of us, but let us hear from you.

'15 Ruth Carter Velines
(Mrs. R. E.)
Gleno Road, Box 59-B
Glen Allen 23060

Dear "Girls":

A nice letter from Margaret Sayre-Rankine gave me news on several girls—thank you, Margaret. Muriel Barber is now in a nursing home. She lost her sister, Beryl Willis last March. Our sympathy to Muriel and other survivors. Muriel enjoyed a visit from Frances Howard Robb, a very close friend, who came to attend Beryl's funeral.

Mary Temple Coleman Theimer and husband had a visit with Margaret Sayre. Mary Temple was reoperating from a serious operation. Do hope that by June she can recover and attend our 55th reunion.

See Lynch had written Margaret of illness and sadness of self and family. We hope Tee will be with us in June.

Margaret and Jane LaCrosee Rankin had planned a trip to see Edna. I hope they could go. Edna Gibby Hunter lost her sister on April 3, 1970. She had been ill for months and Edna had stayed close by her. Our sympathy is for Edna in her sorrow.

Enjoyed Etienne's Broadwitt Moore's phone call. Her interests are many. She had won several blue ribbons at a flower show given by her garden club. Congratulations! Etienne was also going on a tour of Williamsburg during Garden Week. She had heard from the Tyners. All was well with them. They enjoyed good health but had to curtail some activities. Their lives had been saddened by the death of many relatives and friends. A joyful note, however, was a visit from a nephew in Tokyo, Japan. Their home city of Raleigh, North Carolina was aglow this spring with daffodils, pink and white dogwoods. I am sure all our class will be distressed to hear of a recent extensive robbery of "Snuggly", Etienne's country home in Essex County. Many heirlooms and antiques were missing and can never be reclaimed.

Elsie Wood Rice visited relatives in Springfield, Virginia recently. Elsie has really enjoyed her retirement. I thought as much from her long letters.

During Garden Week I enjoyed a tour to homes in historic Hancock and Caroline Counties with my daughter and a friend of hers from Richmond.

I have just returned from a trip to Roanoke and Bluefield, Virginia. It was very restful and everything spoke of spring. The mountains are such an inspiration. Chatted with Mabel Craig, Lillian's sister, while in Roanoke. She keeps busy cataloging books for her church library. Likes to be of service. Was doing well and in good spirits. Had a nice visit with Lucy Falls at her home in Bluefield while in the area. We shared many pleasant memories together and I was glad of the opportunity to visit with her again.

I lost my favorite and only sister-in-law this spring after a month's illness.

Benish Detwiler Anderson has responded to my letter sent from the office concerning the reunion in June. Hope I have many more messages. Always a joy to hear from them.

By the time this news reaches you we will have had our 55th reunion. Some girls are yet lively and active.

Love,
Ruth

'16 Ina Taylor Powell
(Mrs. C. C.)
634 Randolph Avenue
Cape Charles 23110

A nice note from Elizabeth Smith Hutchinson told me that her granddaughter, Lorelei Schaffhausen, is attending Mary Washington and that she hopes to have a second one in 1971. Both of her daughters are Mary Washington graduates.

Write me when you have time.

'17 Imogene Ellis Daniel
(Mrs. Albert C.)
Weems 22376

In desperation for news, I wrote to Louise Harwood Hedrick ('20) for some news about her sister, Mary Harwood Caldwell ('17). She wrote the following: Her husband, Millard F. Caldwell, is Ex-Governor, Congressman, and Supreme Court Judge of Florida. He retired from the last office in 1969. They live in Tallahassee, Fla. on a large plantation, "Harwood". It was opened for Garden Week, so that tells a little about the home. They have two daughters, Sally, Mrs. Fred McCord, who lives in Tallahassee, and Susan, Mrs. Robert Dodd of Lakeland, Fla. Sally has a daughter and a son. Susan has three children. Her husband is a doctor, M.D. in the Lakeland Hospital. Mary is an avid bridge player and enjoys all the social activities that Tallahassee has to offer. She has traveled extensively with Millard, but later enjoys their home and entertaining friends there. A clipping sent from the Society Editor, Pat Wright, has this to say of Mary's daughter, Sally: "The Le Moyne Art Foundation honors members of the Century Club Saturday evening. This year's party will be hosted by Fred and Sally McCord at their home on Bellvue Invasions, printed on gray and white. Give a hint of the elegant evening in store for guests in the gray cypress home of the McCords. They will receive, along with past presidents of Le Moyne. The party is light, with champagne cocktails. Co-hosts for the party are Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Shiel, president of Le Moyne."

Louise Harwood Hedrick ('20) left the next day after writing to me for D.C. to visit her step daughter for a week. Louise has lived in Salada since the death of her husband in July of '68.

Nannie Goodness Francisco ('17) wrote 3/5/70 that she is 75 years old and still very active!

Rechel Messick Buchan ('17) retired from Hargrave Military Academy last June after 12 very successful years as a teacher there. She has rejoined the Woman's Club of Lancaster County of which she is a Past Pres. having served as Pres. 1946-1949. She is a teacher in the Sunday School of the Irvington M. E. Church and still coaches high school students in developmental reading. She says she is enjoying her retirement at the fullest extent. Her youngest son, Vernon, and his puppy live with her in her comfortable Irvington home.

'18 Louise Milbourne Clarke
(Mrs. C. H.)
5009 Cherokee Road
Richmond 23235

Nellie Hodgson Warner
(Mrs. Walter S.)
4605 2nd Street, North
Arlington 22207

Thank you "girls" for the wonderful letters of sympathy I am sure to be there. Please try to go to Homecoming this year. It is later than you think. Am sorry I can't join you this time, as I will be in Hawaii. Next year sincerely hope to be there.

Nellie Hodgson Warner has written me she expects to go. All the others are not sure yet.

Love and best wishes to you all.

Louise Milbourne Clarke

'19 Grace Mason Snuggs
(Mrs. H. H.)
304 Concord Road
Anderson, S.C. 29621

We had such a nice letter from Ruby Benley Douglass that we wanted to share it with you:

Dear Alumnae,

First I want to say I enjoyed the Homecoming there so much last year but can not be there this year.

My husband is now retired and we are grateful to have very good health but busy. We find the days seem to be getting shorter, for we can't seem to finish all we plan to do.

Adeleide Billiquay Van Lear lives within a few miles and keeps busy in her garden. She raises roses and chrysanthemums that are picturesque.

Ruby Brooking ran by for a little visit with the last summer. She seems younger and prettier since she has retired.

Celia Pearson Glasgow visited me last fall and was planning to go to Florida.

Grace Mason Snuggs is enjoying her children and grandchildren. Her son, S.C. Snuggs is in rather poor health at present.

I feel sure you have had a more recent report from those than I.

We now have eight grandchildren, and one married last summer, so we know the Lord has blessed us so many ways.

Thanks for the school contacts.

Sincerely yours,

Ruby Benley Douglass

'26 Lucy Houston Christian
Box 368
Urbanna 23175

Juliet Ware Parker
(Mrs. Richard)
Route 2, Box 23
Dunnville 22454

The Class of 1926 was the largest one to finish four years of college at Mary Washington up to that time. There were twenty graduates receiving their college degrees. They are listed here with the information which is available at present: Purke Anderson (Mrs. George), Wynns Island; Lucy (Mrs. William), Norfolk; Mary (Mrs. George), Lynch (deceased); John Ruffel Strocker (Mrs. D. H.), Fredericksburg; Lily Mae Brooks, Newport News; Nettie Margaret Brooks, Bowling Green; Dorothy Chiles Hoffman (Mrs. John K.), Tascaloosa, Ala.; Katherine Coates Underwood, Oak Grove; Ruby Dulley Decker (Mrs. William C.), Richmond; Ruby Brett Newman (Mrs. Hunter), Fredericksburg; Gladys Gray Liverman (Mrs. John), Woodford; Lucy Houston Christian (Mrs. C. C.), Urbanna; Mary Louise Jeter, Peninsula; Katherine Underwood (deceased); Elizabeth Harrison, Fredericksburg; Virginia Louise Stearns; Margaret Elizabeth Sutton, New York City; Elizabeth Tulley, (deceased).

Frances Walker, Annapolis; Frederick, Md.; Juliet Ware Parker, Dunnville.

There were over one hundred students who finished the two-year course. Many of these went on for their degrees and are in the class of 1928. If anyone in the two year class of 1928 is interested in gathering information for that group, please get in touch with me. I will be glad to welcome news also from those listed above.

Lucy Houston Christian
Juliet Ware Parker

'27 Phoebe Mair Sitwell
(Mrs. H. C. Fitz Roy)
Three Ditts Estate, Route 2
Bedford 24523

The Class of 1927 now can probably boast of some retirements, grandchildren and, perhaps, some great grandchildren.

One joyous note on retirement travel comes from Dulcie Graham, (Mildred Howell Wilshire Graham) who lives at 3105 Holmes Run Road, Falls Church, Virginia. She writes: Just got back from a fantastic trip across country in our Airstream. We had great weather all winter in places like El Paso, San Diego, Manhattan Beach, Palm Springs, Tucson, Death Valley, Yuma, etc. We came home through the Rio Grande for Mardi Gras and then around the Gulf Coast of Florida to a big Airstream Rally in Sarasota. Having just been at Disneyland in California for awhile, we were interested in seeing the progress of Florida Disney World. The work at Kissimmee has started and the big Disney opening is planned for 1971. Traveling is really great fun, and some fine summer we plan to take this same type trip across northern United States.

Do write the Alumnae Office or me about your plans, dreams, realities, so that your friends may know about you.

Two addresses received within recent months may be of interest to some of you, so they are being published herewith: Miss Elizabeth Gooch, 651 Terry Road, Suffolk, Va. 23434.

Mrs. Kathryn Hastings Lashley, 635 South Main Street, Emporia, Va. 23847.

If you know the address of any of the following members of our class, will you notify me or the Alumnae Office promptly. We have information about them where abouts; therefore they are not receiving any news of you or other classmates. Do help us find " 'em.

Helen Johnson Allen (Mrs. James B.)
Thelma Gladstone Beach (Mrs. E. P.)
Margaret Daniel Broadhead (Mrs.)
Dorothy Chidester Chestnut (Mrs. Walter H.)
Dorothy Clement French (Mrs. Dewey)
Gladys Gillet (Miss)
Willie Mae Moore Gordon (Mrs. Everett)
Mary Alice Spillman Haley (Mrs. Peter)
Marjorie Eari Hall (Miss?)
Mary Briel Harris (Mrs.)
Wilda B. Kenney (Miss)
Annie Rice (Miss)
Grace F. Slayton (Mrs.)
Dorothy Draper Thompson (Mrs. N. P.)

"elderly" teacher mentioned, my days were completely my own (most of them).
Elder son, Albert, has just been awarded the chairmanship of the social studies department at Middlebury Union High School (Vermont). This is one of the better schools in the state. So my husband and I are most pleased.

We are planning to go to the White Mountains in N. H. in mid-July with our younger son, Rot. Can join us there for a few days. In early August, my husband and I hope to fly to the Canal Zone (Panama) to visit my sister and brother-in-law, as well as my 89-year-old mother.

Janet Potter Cunningham, husband, and parents plan to spend the summer at a lake in northern Massachusetts; we hope to call on them between our two vacations.
Does anyone ever hear from Elva (Smith) Keenon, Class of '31? She and I were friends while still living in the Canal Zone but we have lost touch completely. She and her husband have lived in various countries in the past twenty years, so this lack of contact is not too surprising.

As you must have been, I was most disturbed to read of Mrs. Bushnell's death earlier this year. In spite of (or perhaps because of) her need for precision, she was one of my favorites. I still remember door-draming in the dining hall—and a return by the culprit, to close the door quietly! Which never hurt anyone. I might add!

Fortunately for me—and for my students —no one questions the need for a certain amount of self-discipline. My youngsters have been angels, but, perhaps that is par for business education classes. Am I glad that I teach what I do!

Would you know if Mrs. B. Dodd (Dr. Dodd's wife) still lives in Fredericksburg? Should you attend the June festivities, would you be kind enough to investigate, via the directory? I believe Dr. Dodd died some time during the past year; I should like to write a note to Mrs. Dodd, who was also a former professor of mine, and a very talented one, by the way.

Thank you for reading all this rambling. Obviously, I still have pleasant memories of Fredericksburg.

Sincerely,

Anna Bradley Wedwaldt
(Mrs. Bradley)

'34 Nellie Stewart Pettit
(Mrs. C. P.)
"Walbrook"
Fredericks Hall 22057

'35 Phyllis E. Currie
St. Joseph Villa
800 Washington Highway
Richmond 22227

Marian Helin Wingfield sent news of herself for our reunion. She said it all better than I could, so I quote her here:

"Marian Helin Wingfield '35 taught at Schwallfield (Danville) '35-'36. Falmouth High School '36-'39. Married William Benjamin Wingfield VPI '35 in '39. Daughter Bonnie born in Roma, Ga. in '40. Army wife '41-'46. Daughter Diane born in Alexandria, Va. '42. Son William Chiles born in Fredericksburg, Va. '48.

Army wife '51-'58. Lived in S.C., N.C., Mo., Okla., Germany, Hudson's Bay, Canada, N.J., Ohio, and Va.
Bonnie attended Oklahoma U. '58-'60. Married Lee Evans III in '60.
Dianne graduated from Ohio State U. '69. Worked in Columbus, Ohio. Recently joined VPECO at Fishersville, Va.
William C.—U. of Va. '71. International Relations."

'36 Ethel Nelson Welmore
(Mrs. Joseph W.)
107 Matileo Avenue
Hampton 22361

New in the time to start planning to come to the 35th reunion on April 16 and 17.

1971. Put it on your calendar right now, won't you, please? Remember the beauty of the campus at Springtime, and the friendships you made at college? You can renew them, and also meet many other interesting people. So we hope to see you there. You'll be hearing from us.

Michael Lambieth, the son of Dorothy Teese Lambieth, teaches 6th grade at Carver School, Newport News. This year he has served as president of the Newport News Education Association.

My father, Charles Nelson, died on March 15, 1970, at the age of 87. He fell and broke his hip on March 6 and seemed to be getting along pretty well after the operation. Heart failure set in early on Sunday, the 15th of March, and he died that afternoon. He was blessed with good health almost all his life, and enjoyed spending four winters in Florida at a retirement hotel. He was active up to the day he fell, and lived a long, useful, full life. I began thinking of my parents' sacrifices to send me to college. The following tribute to him was sent in a letter from his minister, Robert D. Goshorn, pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church, Newport News. This letter was so beautiful, and I thought it would be appropriate to put in the news. "Mr. Charles Nelson had a rugged constitution and simple faith that radiated spiritual confidence to all who knew him. It was not in expressions of public testimony, but in his ability to humbly pray and recite scripture as a plain portion of his personal life. He was a devoted Christian. I am sure heaven is full of his kind of God's children."

For his many, full, independent, healthy years we are grateful. For ourselves another candle on earth is not burning and the darkness is thick. Other candles will be lighted, but the glow from his we anticipate flickering from the breath of his deep resonant voice when we, too, cross over.

He lived this church. Your tribute honors the Christ he loved and honored."

'38 Helia Pressley Voris
(Mrs. J. Calvin)
5640 Old Lawyers Hill Road
Eldridge, Maryland 21227

'39 Louise Harris Maissie
(Mrs. J. Quintus)
Route 2, Box 90
Louisia 23093

Mary Helasbeck Townsend
(Mrs. John F.)
Manquin 21106

Bernice Whipple Camp wrote me the following letter: "I have been writing to you in my thoughts many times and tonight I am putting it on paper."

Yesterday my husband and I, who are wintering in Florida, attended the funeral service for our friend Mrs. Bushnell.

A few years ago, we stopped to see her in St. Petersburg. At that time she was busy being a gray lady in a hospital.

Four years ago she moved to Bradenton at the Manor and again we stopped to visit with her. She inspired both of us so much and we always left feeling so much richer.

This last December—a week before the holidays—she had a nine visit with her. She at the time was in the hospital section but still very alert in mind and was so interested in the outside world and the problems of our country. She was disturbed about the war and the loss of so many lives. Her eyesight was failing and her body was becoming weary after so many years of guiding girls in the Hill and at Moravian College. She wanted us to come back again but to wait until she was back in her own room at the Manor.

That time never came. She talked of her life and the near completion of it. She told us she would not see another Christmas for she was getting tired.

We read of her passing and attended the short service. My, how I wanted more girls of the Hill there.

Although she has left this world her inspiration to all of us will continue to grow thru the gates.

I spoke to one of the women at the Manor and her remarks were the same as all of ours: "She was such a grand lady."

As for myself, after 27 years of teaching health and physical education, in a junior high school, I retired last year.

My husband also retired from work and this past winter, we left to come where no snow and let would get us. We will be looking for home in the spring.

Was sorry I didn't make our reunion but with my retirement at that time too I had too many irons in the fire.

Myrtil Hall O'Sullivan is most happy to have son Bobby home from Vietnam. She and Doris Stage Prudes shared their happiness recently. Doris' husband is able to sit down comfortably after five years of back trouble, pain, and operations.

Mary Helasbeck Townsend has been vacationing in Florida.

My second grandson, Robert Beverly Downing, arrived in April. Two weeks later we had a Downing reunion and twenty-two were present to welcome him into the clan.

In June Margaret Emerick Carter's third (of six) child will be married. She and her husband-to-be graduate from college on June 7th. Margaret is teaching commercial part-time.

Elizabeth CLOPTON Brown is married to a doctor in Gloucester. They have three daughters: Randy, a graduate of Sweet Briar, is married to a law student; Robin graduated from Mt. Holyoke and is doing graduate work at U. Va. in the history of architecture; and Cecilia is a junior at St. Margaret's School. Elizabeth and her husband plan to visit Hong Kong and Tokyo during the summer. Louisiana is lovely in summer; come to see us.

'40 Roselle Turk Davidson
(Mrs. Paul W.)
1514 Bayshore Lane
Richmond 22229

Adelaide Rosborough Thorpe was the subject of an article in a series in her local paper honoring outstanding citizens. Adelaide was acclaimed for her outstanding volunteer work among many charitable organizations. In addition, she received her local Chamber of Commerce trophy in 1969, as the Outstanding Woman of Brazaosport (County) Texas. We are just now learning about this, Adelaide, but we are very proud to learn of this honor bestowed upon one of our class. The newspaper article on Adelaide and her family was such interesting reading. I wish she could be with us at Homecoming.

The Thorpes live near Houston and have two daughters—one in graduate school at Brown University and the other enters SMU in the fall. Adelaide writes that former MWC Prof. Harold Weiss, who now teaches at SMU, often speaks of his MWC days and would like to hear from some of his old friends. The Thorps had a memorable trip to Europe 5 years ago for their 25th anniversary.

Gay Smith Wood writes that she is a dietitian at St. Elizabeth's Hospital in D.C. And has been taking evening courses at the U. of Md. College of Ed. Graduated from MWC in June, married in July and enters the Univ. of Md. Graduate School in Sept. Gail also writes that she feels great—ever being married when she was in school. That's the way to be the stars!

Virginia Marshall Hall is coming up from Birmingham for Homecoming. The Lewises have 3 children—the eldest in graduate school at Ga. Tech, and married with a little daughter. Another son is at the Univ. of Ala., and a lovely teenager at home.

Beulah Mason Evans can't be with us due to a graduation and wedding. Her second son is being married next week before HC and the new daughter-in-law graduates June 6.

Graduations will also keep Mary Lou Wilcox, Dull and Barbara Gaines Mann away. Barbara's daughter graduates from Radford. Mary Lou's second daughter graduates from college June 6. Mary Lou has a part time job tutoring nursing students and has a children—a job she loves. Blessings!

Frances Alvey Wright has one daughter getting married and another is expecting a baby, so she isn't sure about her plans at the moment.

'28 Mildred Olds Leysar
1301 South Buchanan
Arlington 22204

'29 Helen Van Deburg Hall
(Mrs. Bernard)
Route 1, Box 43
Fredericksburg 22401

A lovely note came from Lucille Peary Hillrup which we quote:
"I wish I had some interesting news to send along—this small business that my hubby and I operate takes the 24 hours in every day. Not much opportunity for recreation of any kind! I always enjoy getting the Alumnae News—I read it from 'cover to cover.' It's such a smart idea to put the names in extra black print!"

'31 Ola Murray Martin
(Mrs. Thomas C.)
Beaverdam 22015

Mary Cobb reports that she is a retired home economics teacher, having retired after 30 years of teaching. Let's have more news from our classmates. Hope to see you at Homecoming, June 5-7.

'32 Margaret Kirkpatrick Thompson
(Mrs. Wheeler T.)
1112 Littlepage Street
Fredericksburg 22401

'33 Reba Collier Thorpe
(Mrs. L. L.)
Myrtle Acres
Newsom 22374

Such a lovely letter from Anna Bradley Wedwaldt that I wanted to share it with you.

Dear Reba—

There is no outstanding news from this sector.
After conferring a bout with the flu this winter, I flew to Miami during our spring recess to visit our younger son in Miami. I must say that this was exactly what this Eather Burrass Bailey lives in Louisiana where her husband owns a drug store. The Baileys have one son and two grandchildren. Esther taught for 22 years.

Louise Marshall Bennett's husband, after serving as pastor of Stukeley Hall Baptist Church in Richmond for over 19 years, has joined the Virginia Institute of Pastoral Care. In his new capacity, he serves as a full time pastoral counselor, organizes counseling centers throughout the state and conducts seminars for seminarians and pastors.

Marietta Landrum Whitehead is a widow with 3 daughters and teaches at Falling Creek.

Hope to see all of you June 6.

41 Jo Ewing Balzer
(Mrs. R. H.)
7 Cale Circle
Newport News 23066

Lucy Dickinson Spencer
(Mrs. L. E.)
9 Diggs Drive
Newport News 23062

Sorry about the long time between notes of news. We are very excited at our home. Our older son, Richard, in Medical School at UVA, is marrying Miss Julie Weaver of Lexington, June 22. Our younger son, John Ewing Balzer, is graduating from Ferguson High School in June. He will enter VPI in the fall. I'm a dietitian at Riverside Hospital here in Newport News. I've seen Margaret Kilian at Madison College during a summer seminar and dietetic conventions She's at MCV.

Betty Carter Gehr, 915 State Road, Hinkley, Ohio is working at Sears. Clara Dugger Bruner's son John graduates UVA in June. Frances Dugger Thayer and husband, Roy, have moved from Lexington to Charlottesville, 2405 Peyton Dr., Westfield Club Apt. 3. Dorothy Day Riley is working at George Washington University Extension, Ft. Monroe, Va. She and daughter, Teresa, moved back to Newport News, 24 State Road, after her husband, Al, died in 1968.

I hope to get to Homecoming, June 5-7, to meet Jane Stell Artunkal, visiting the USA from Istanbul, Turkey. She and her husband, Dr. Tahsin Artunkal, are attending the 6th World Congress of Gynecology & Obstetrics in New York.

Marion Jones Pettit has moved to Piney Point, Md. Hope she can make Homecoming. Eleanor Batchelor Smith writes that her twins are 11. She & Benny have recently remodeled their home at 2408 N. Upshur St. Arlington.

Marguerite Jeanine Helbach and husband, Henry, continue their traveling ways. Their home base is Honolulu. They have traveled to Alaska, Hawaii, & South Pacific. Jane Rocas Subi has married Herman Grunau and lives in California. N. J. Lois Loehr Brown is Coordinator of Special Education for the Prince William County Schools. Betty Flenniken Smith is stationed in Honolulu, 31 Mohabala Drive, with her husband, Admiral Spencer R. Smith & family. Jamie Redwood Witzel has run into Joe Fleet Edwards, 46 Botha Ave. Wakeley, Mass.

Leore Magill Powell is Director of the Instrumental Materials Center for Handicapped Children and Youth for the Office of Public Instruction, State of Illinois. This is a project funded in part by the Bureau of Education for the Handicapped and is part of the national IMC network for handicapped children. As Leore tells us, we have the first state to have such a center mandated. This was started in 1967 although passed by the legislature in 1963. The interim was spent in planning. Leore also said that she has four children of her own and two step-daughters.

Our 30th reunion will be April 16-18, 1971, at the college. This is a change in timing. Alumni will be asked to pay their lodging at local motels. All meals will be provided by the college. We hope to get all reservations in the same motel so we can all be together. Let us know.

'42 Elizabeth Stacker Gallant
(Mrs. Paul B.)
138 Page Road
Bedford, Massachusetts 01730

'43 Frances Wills Stevens
(Mrs. James S. Jr.)
432 Oakland Drive
Raleigh, North Carolina 27609

Barrett Tyler Miller (Mrs. Charles, 2413 East 4th Street, Bloomington, Indiana 47401) sent a grand letter. I couldn't bear to leave out any of it. Here is his:

"Last year I received an M. A. degree in English from Indiana University and am updated teachers license from the State of Indiana. I frankly admit that it was due to my husband's prodding that I went back to the classroom. A good many years have passed since I received the Virginia teachers license and went off to a year of graduate study at the School of Education at Harvard University!

Truly, I enjoyed being back in college, and in some of the junior and senior high schools last year as a substitute teacher. At present the only teaching I am doing is as a volunteer teacher of English to six wivas of foreign students as one activity of the local United Nations program.

This summer, at last, I shall be on the Staff for Hilltop Junior Gardening. This is an exciting summer recreation project shared jointly by the University Botany Dept., the County Park and Recreation Dept., and assisted by the Bloomington Garden Club, for children age 9-15.

Still active in League of Women Voters (Finance Chairman for 1970-71); in Church's Woman's Society and Council of Ministers (Chairman, Christian Social Relations).

Husband, Charles, is Instrument Maker (designer-builder) for Geology Department at the University.

Son, Stephen, is a junior here, majoring in Radio/Television.

Son, Donald, will be a freshman there in September, continuing his interest in stage craft and design.

This has become a bit wordy—longer that I intended it to be, but perhaps some members of Class of 1943 will actually be interested in it. My inclination was to seal up my small donation and get it on its way. On second thought, I decided to write a paragraph or so (I) as long as I had the type writer, to make copies of my banana cake recipe to fill requests from four of my pupils.

Best wishes to all,
Harriet T. Miller

I and a second letter from Claire Moore Kelly.

This is information from my family since the reunion in '68.

Linda (23) married Richard Smith July 13, 1968. They have lived in Guatemala since. Richard has been working on his P. H. D. in Anthropology. Linda is working on her masters in P. E. and is working on a project with the Indian and Spanish children testing their motor ability. They plan to be home in July, probably live in Santa Barbara.

Jayne (19) is going to the U. of Cal. at San Diego and is finishing her freshman year.

Scott (17) will graduate from Chatsworth High in June and plans to attend Purdue U. in Sept.

There is nothing new on Randy (25) and his wife, Kathy since '68. Kathy had 4 years in the Air Force and is now working for RCA and going to La Fernando Valley State College.

We have visited Linda & Rick in Guatemala at Christmas time and also enjoyed Mexico on the way. We plan to go to Hawaii for a few weeks this summer.

We have moved from our large home into a condominium—still larger than what we really need, but we are enjoying it.

When are some of you coming out to visit in Ca.??

Claire Moore Kelly
I'm waiting to hear from the rest of you.

'44 Elizabeth Cox Leao
(Mrs. J. P.)
High St. Rt. 2 Box 70
Higunna, Connecticut 06441

The following items have been received very randomly during the past months:

Mary Elise Gardiner Slarky wrote that she is married to the Supt. of Schools in Charles County and lives in Forest Park, Maryland with their seven children. She continues to teach, which should make her a rather busy person.

A snapshot of nine very handsome young people accompanied a note from Phyllis Quimby Anderson. The children are in various stages of education including college, art school and high school.

Virginia Shanks Carter wrote from Alexandria that her husband is stationed in Washington, D.C.—Her daughter, Cindy, attended Mary Washington two years and will be commissioned in the Army Nurse Corps. Her son, Ray, will compete in the small Bore Rifle World Championship Competition in Arizona this summer.

A wonderfully interesting letter from Frances Trudy described her work with the Un-evangelized Fields Mission. I assume most of the work is with inland natives of South America as this was the letter's detail.

Gail Morgan Klise is in Coronado, Calif. and Marjorie Denney in Newport, R. I., following their return from Hawaii. I have their addresses as received from the Alumnae Office.

I expect to be in Chicago, Ill. for a meeting the first week in June, and hope to fit in a visit with Jane Brownley Thomas and Roberta Kingston Dingle while I am there. I talked with Nancy Duval Andrew last week, hoping she might have additional news items. Come on classmates—keep me posted!

'45 Gloria Post Goodsell
(Mrs. Roger)
513 Dorchester
Tyler, Texas 75701

Most likely, by the time you read this, our 50th reunion will have passed. My fervent hope is that the attendance was good and that all of us can say that it was a delightful experience.

Miss Clara Elizabeth (Betty) Walsh '45 sent a note saying that she had attended the 5th International Congress of Dietetics in Washington, D. C., and had visited Fredrickburg. She remarked about the tremendous growth of the city and MWC. These of you who have not visited this area in recent years would concur with her statement.

I must confess that on our trips from Texas to N. Y. to visit our families, even though the distance is longer by this route, the "ole bugaboo" just seems to head in the direction of the East coast so that we may see some of our dear friends in Virginia and ride through the campus of the college.

Weren't we fortunate to have had the experience of being students at MWC?

'46 Carolyn Rob Huebner
(Mrs. J. P.)
2105 S. Pierce Street
Arlington 22202

Susan Frances Vick Warren is teaching Spanish in Wilson, North Carolina city schools. They have two sons, George III, a sophomore at North Carolina State University and Francis, a junior in high school.

Janet Worsley Mayberry and Lizzy have four sons. The oldest will enter college this fall. Janice is a busy housewife.

Beris Fay Hissard Hines lives in Louisiana and has two children, Chris and Karen. Her husband passed away about two years ago.

Marguerite Dameron Albert and husband, Mel, live with their family in Falls Church, Virginia. Marge is teaching.

Carolyn Ford Duncan and Fred live in Hamilton, Virginia, where Carolyn teaches in kindergarten. Daughter, Danette, is in college and Yvonne will soon go or may have started this year.

Elizabeth Stallings Sharpe and Coy have settled in Oklahoma. Coy has retired from the Navy. They have a son and daughter.

Betty Atkins Powers, Russell and their four children live in St. Paul, N.C. (about 10 miles south of Fayetteville). Betty teaches sixth grade. Hall will be a junior at N.C. State in Raleigh (engineering); Elizabeth will be a junior in high school; Janice will be a freshman; and David will enter fifth grade in the fall.

Betty Hildrup Morris and husband, Tom, live in Alexandria, Virginia with their two sons.

Ann Hildrup, Gordon and their children live in Chancellorsville, Virginia.

Joan Tilly Veseley lost her husband in Viet Nam last November; her son is going to flying school.

Betty Jones Baskin, Sterling, Virginia. Betty's husband is practicing law in Falls Church, Virginia. Their son is a freshman at the University of Richmond and Beck, 16, is in high school.

May I, as your class agent, thank Betty Jones Baskin and Susan Frances Vick for sending me interesting news about our '46 alumnae. Betty called me by phone and Susan sent a lengthy letter.

Ann Pernichell, Director of Alumnae Affairs, sent me the following information concerning our 50th Reunion Homecoming 1971, and Reunions have been set April 16-18 at the college. This spring ride rather than Commencement Week will enable us to have a better program.

The disadvantage is that alumnae will be asked to pay their lodging expenses and stay at area motels. All meals will be provided by the college. Do you want a private party for Friday or Saturday night? We must make arrangements now, so let me know. We could probably rent a banquet room at one of the local restaurants.

Please pass the above information to all our '46 graduates and let us know about your plans for coming next spring—Our 50th Reunion 1971.

'47 Jean Anne Bell
112 S. James Avenue
Suffolk 23434

'48 Kitty Clark Gibbons
(Mrs. William Conrad)
601 North Pitt Street
Alexandria 22314

'49 Ann McCaskill Lihis
(Mrs. Claude F.)
Windsor Mill Road, Extended
RFD No. 5, Box 317
Baltimore, Maryland 21207

Dee Ross is employed as elementary school supervisor in the Henrico County Schools, near Richmond.

Francis Ellis Graves of Vero Beach, Florida, visited in Richmond for Thanksgiving.

Betty McClellan Evans and family are moving from Puerto Rico back to the states. Her husband will be Airport Services Manager of Pan Am in Los Angeles. They have leaving Puerto Rico after living there for 7 years.

In fact her son John plans to return there for his last year of high school. Her oldest son, Richard, is applying to Hampton Sydney.

Jeanne Farrington Leslie and 4 daughters visited Leona Hall Howard and family in Miami for several days at Easter time.

Alise Daniels is retired from her government job, with emphysema and asthma. She owns a house which she shares with a couple who are good friends.

Barbara Daniels Johnson reunited by phone with her 1945-46 roommate, Anna Pierce Showalter, while visiting her daughter in Richmond.

Mary Ann Gadsley Little and her husband have three children (Amy, 8. Robert, 7. "Rusty", 7) and Michael, 4. Her husband is a pharmacist with his own drug store.

Frances Hissard Hines noted that she has joined N.O.W., the National Organization for Women.

Jackie McConnell Berry has been married to Mr. Leslie Carlton Scarborough, Jr. We are very happy for her.

'50 Dorothy Held Gaway
(Mrs. Irwin, Jr.)
177 McCosh Road
Upper Montclair, N.J. 07043

By the time you read this our 20th reunion will be over and many of us will have also embarked on a new venture, that of interior design. She started out decorating the apartment of a friend, who recommended her to a sister, friend, and now she's off and very busy. Good luck, gal!

Sandra Cutchins Pittman and Gary moved to Yorktown Heights, New York with their three boys in March. Sandra and Gary will get in touch with classmates living in the Peekskill, White Plains, and New York area. (This is a special friend, and she has been a very nice person to get together, and then write and tell me all the news.)

Cathy Dick Ray and Bill are in Fort Collins, Colorado with their three boys, 10, John 8, and Tom 7. Hobby Bill is with Hewlett-Packard in nearby Loveland. They are camping enthusiasts and enjoyed a trip to Mesa Verde, even though it poured all night, an animal raided their food supply and they all got soaked to the skin. Cathy hears from Anna Pettor in Yakima, Washington; Pat Watts moves to Oakdale, Maryland; Laura Miller Bealey in Oakton, Virginia; and Barbara Harrell Franklin in Cleveland, Tennessee. Addresses, please, pals, and let's hear from you.

Sadie Berke Grashberg got together for lunch at her house with Barbara Wygal Birdsong and Marino Cutchins Huns, her fresh and sophisticated roommates, both from Suffolk. They were accompanied by their preschool daughters, Pat Dent Baynes and her baby boy, and Louise Hannelman Bowman and three of her children also came. The children all have a very good time. Sadie has a daughter, while the memories caught up on news of years past and present.

Jeanette Carroll Rothrock and lawyer husband Tom live in Fairfax County with their boys Jefferson 8, and Bradley 7. After graduation Jeanette worked four and a half years as a sales representative for the American Juvenile and Domestic Relations Court. She obtained thirty hours of graduate work in education several years ago and is now teaching third grade. They are devoting more and more time to civic events, and she is now teaching. Tom is active in politics and community affairs.

Cerenne "Corky" Slater Gray, hubby Dick, and son, David 5, are here in San Diego. Corky has been teaching for five years in the third grade gifted program at McDowell Elementary School, Union City, California, in the School District. She is our treasurer for the Southern California Chapter of the Mary Washington College Alumnae Association, and is vice-president of the San Diego Chapter of Alpha Delta Gamma. Jeannette International education sorority. Dick is a teacher of sixth grade at Ocean Beach Elementary, and is in the San Diego City Schools. He is writing his master's thesis on education and keeps in touch with Marilyn Platt Goodlett in River Vale, New Jersey, and with Mickey Foley McDaniel in Scottsdale, Arizona.

Congratulations to Mary Linda Fitchett Addison on her recent marriage to William David Elliott. She and Dave are living in Escondido. And to Mary Gale Bechman on her recent marriage to Parker Matthai in Washington, D.C. Parker is from Baltimore, and a Yale graduate. He is an architect, and a partner in the architectural firm of Bechman & Associates. After a honeymoon on Parker's thirty foot sloop out of Annapolis they will be living in Owins Mills (a suburb of Baltimore). Two classmates who are wedding were Barbara Kowalsky and Barbara Strangman Donovan.

The Foeses have a change of news since the last issue. Kerry is no longer in private law but is in the U.S. Army. And, as of April 1 (no foolin') he accepted the position of Corporate Counsel for Travelodge International, Inc., with headquarters in El Cajon, California, which is about ten minutes from our area. We're all very happy about this job change.

At the suggestion of a classmate, I have prepared a list of gals by geographical location (cities and states) who the alumnae association will be sending out to each of you for whom we have current addresses, to assist you in getting together for fun, and to see if you can get together to organize a car pool, or what have you, for our reunion next year, as you wish. One other purpose is to ask you to PERUSE the "unknown" names and state if you know who they are, to send me names and addresses of those you know. Four hundred "lost" gals must be a record! I'd like to pass on an up-to-date name and address file to the next alumnae year. I'd like to see if gals who are willing to be candidates for the election. Isn't that great? Many thanks, ladies, and you'll be hearing from me soon. Another thing I'd like to do after you send me new addresses for lost classmates is to type up a new roster, a copy of which the association will send to each of you for whom we have addresses. Wouldn't you please help?

Editor's note: A last-minute addition by way of a letter from Ann Ford Humphries just couldn't be left out. She says, "Hi, Hermie, hi, hi." Ann's husband, David, is an orthopedic surgeon. We gather he is no longer in the military service. Ann did say, enquiring the residency, he spent eleven years with the Army, including three years in Germany. We bet they have lots of memories. The Humphries live in Charlotte, N.C. with three children, ages 11½, 14½, David Scott, Jr. 10; and Stuart (6 months). Her closing comment was "I'm a homemaker with lots of extra curricula," and we guess she probably is busy as can be.

'57 Nancy Hellett Guest
(Mrs. R. H.)
2 June Drive
Loudonville, New York 12211

Not much news this time! I'd die hear from two classmates so here goes—Mary Frances Pierce Burton writes that they are now living in Rochester, Minnesota, where Tom is with Flotronics. They make medical equipment. The Burtons have three children ages 11, 8, and 6. The only person Mary Frances has seen is Nancy Moore Cavins when she was on her way to vacation in Northern Minnesota. Then I received a long letter from Marjorie Olafsen Patten better known as "Tootie." Tootie was with two years and then went to Penn State. She was married and lives in a small town, Albion, Pa. where her husband, Glen, teaches and Tootie is Director of Guidance. They have two boys age 6 and 5 and she writes the following news: Evelyn Weste Nordstrand and husband Roy, have just adopted a second child Jeffrey. They have a daughter Susan and live in Glen Rock, New Jersey.

Barbara Mason Carter lives in Roanoke, Virginia and teaches elementary school.

Kit Johnson is (or was) teaching music in Ann Arbor, Michigan. Let's hear from you, Kit.

That reminds me—several of our classmates are among the missing. If anyone knows the whereabouts of the following, please let me know. We want to keep our records up to date! Here goes—Mary Colley Alexander, Laura Babayan, Bonnie McCracken Dana, Betty Jane Ruby, Gene Beebe, Astair Ledgersgard Clough, Mary Lamb Belknap Thomas, age 4½, and Kirk Dunlop, 8 months. There's more but space won't permit me to go on. I'll add some more next time.

Let's hear from everyone!

'58 Jean Lee Anderson Chapman
(Mrs. C. Rodger)
10001 13th Avenue
Richmond 21232

Hello,
We have a very short column this time. Geese Hurt Smallwood sent news from Roanoke. Her husband, Tom, is Director of Personnel at First National Exchange Bank of Virginia. They now have two children, Ellen Thomas, age 4½, and Kirk Dunlop, 8 months.

Susan Godlove has been working in St. Louis, Mo., as a psychiatric social worker since 1968. In April she vacationed in Acapulco, baby girl!

Helen Theophilus Stassinis writes that she and Jim have finally settled in one place long enough to buy a house. They are now in Springfield, a suburb of Washington, D.C. Jim is in his 7th year with the Justice Department. Their son, Odysseus Steve, is now 3½ and is in kindergarten. Elizabeth Oran is in her second year of college. Helen says she is enjoying being a fulltime homemaker, but may return to teaching when Elizabeth reaches college.

My sympathy to my classmate I would like to express our sympathy of Helen. Her father, Charles G. Theophilus of Newport News, passed away on December 29.

As you can tell from the birth column, Anne Belt Norris and I are busy changing diapers. Mary was born on February 20 so at the present time butterflies are the biggest thing for her life. Her two sisters have spoiled her rotten. Anne offered some relief to the all-girl situation. Bill arrived on April 20. He also has two sisters.

The Alumnae Office has asked if I would like to locate many of our missing classmates. I can't list a few of the names. If any of you have an address, please advise it on a postal card. Address: Alvis Ahrens, Yvonne Lewis Alexander, Beth Ann Aldrich, Irene Case Bader, Roseanne B. Barnett, Elizabeth Fawcett Beardsley, Linda Hatch Bowden, Marjorie Boyles, Berolice Eugean Brigger, and Claudia Brown.

Joan Lee

'59 Edna Gooch Trudeau
(Mrs. Thomas)
1221 Marcelline Drive
Mobile, Ala. 36609

Yipee! It's vacation time! Now, it's the mamas turn to entertain. And here's some entertaining news of our class—

Note from Jane Tucker Broadbooks, Jon Karl is at that age—he is a wonderful companion. The Broadbooks did find time to visit their family in Florida. Jane has almost completed her interior decorating course. Carter Brydson Moore sent the happy news of the birth of her second girl in June named Taylor. Madame Carondeau Raphaela and wife are settled in a new home in Cherry Hill, N.J. Russ is on the staff of the Children's Hospital in Philadelphia as a pediatric anesthesiologist. Chris is in kindergarten and Jim attends nursery school several times a week. Marianne has been elected President of the Dr.'s Wives of Children's Hospital. And for fun, the family has been taking skating lessons.

Priscilla Brown Wardlaw said they really had a cold winter and she's really thankful it's thawing out. Her time and her two little "dynamos", Julia Coates Littlefield write they're moving. They are returning to Gotham State College where Mo has been attending assistant professor of education. Julia said that Shirley Mandel Overman is teaching art in the Summerville S.C. public schools. Sally Withers Bell brought us up to date on herself and her two daughters, Erica and Kimberly. Sally is teaching 7th and 8th grades in Redwood City, California, which is just south of San Francisco. And Edna and Gloria Winslow Borden had a letter, she included news of Ruth Osterman Butten, who is teaching in Charlottesville. Dorinda Osterman Anderson is in San Diego and has two wonderful boys. Sally is looking forward to making a trip back East this summer. Hopefully.

Nancy Perdy works as the Catalog Librarian at Eastern Pa. Psychiatric Institute in Philadelphia.

Burrah! Marjorie Spence Harrison is so excited about their new adopted daughter Blair, and speak of double blessings. Marcia is expecting in September! While awaiting the great day, Marcia has become active in local politics, as has her husband. In her community and is the Fellowship Chairman for the AAUW. Bill has been active with his practice and as External Vice Pres. of Annapolis Jaycees. In the baby department, Barbara Gordon Morgan has the birth of their son, Christopher born in November. After Jim's tour of duty is over they plan to head toward Charleston, South Carolina. And Gloria Winslow Borden had a girl, Cynthia Lee, born in July. Her family managed a trip to Virginia for the marriage of Gloria's sister, but it was slightly marred by the children's crying. The children Gloria said she saw Betty Jane Smith Komp and her husband. They have two girls and are stationed in Patuxent River, Md. Gloria lives in Redwood City and is stationed at the Long Beach Naval Shipyard.

Girls, would you believe that's all the news I have! Fraid so. Know you're busy with all those wonderful families. My correspondence is a little more abundant, though watch out summer! So whenever you have a moment, just drop a line on a postcard. No big news from this end. As I write this, only two more sisters are alive! My husband's father passed away suddenly last week and thus has been a difficult time. But there's always a smile on my face when I recognize a letter from a MWC gal in the mail—let me hear from you.

Love,
"Eddie"

'60 Judy Campbell Close
(Mrs. Ralph)
1400 Rock Ridge Lane
Greenwich, Conn. 06030
Woodsbridge 22191

'61 Eleanor Riles Wamsley
(Mrs. W. H. Jr.)
1535 North Logan
Danville, Illinois 61832

Mary Elizabeth Fletcher
202 Carriage Hill Apt.
1109 Elm Street
Fayetteville, N.C. 28303

Connie Booth Lopholites
(Mrs. Austin)
2816 Kennedy Road
Tainybrook
Wilmington, Delaware 19803

Phyllis Pierce Schwartz
(Mrs. Richard)
2117 Parkview Drive
Whittier Oaks
Morgantown, N.J. 07751

Hi Gals,
Andy, Elaine, and I have just returned (May 10) from a three-week vacation in Greece and we are both amazed with the fact that spring has indeed come to Delaware, as well as Greece! The fields of red poppies, daisies, and other wild flowers blooming all over Greece, along with the greenness of the grass and trees was a refreshing change from previous visits in the summer where everything is brown. It's a different sort of spring from the lovely one at MWC but beautiful nevertheless. We visited Andy's parents in Thessaloniki and then went south to Rhodes for a week. And I have just returned (May 10) from a three-week vacation in Greece and we are both amazed with the fact that spring has indeed come to Delaware, as well as Greece! The fields of red poppies, daisies, and other wild flowers blooming all over Greece, along with the greenness of the grass and trees was a refreshing change from previous visits in the summer where everything is brown. It's a different sort of spring from the lovely one at MWC but beautiful nevertheless. We visited Andy's parents in Thessaloniki and then went south to Rhodes for a week. And I have just returned (May 10) from a three-week vacation in Greece and we are both amazed with the fact that spring has indeed come to Delaware, as well as Greece! The fields of red poppies, daisies, and other wild flowers blooming all over Greece, along with the greenness of the grass and trees was a refreshing change from previous visits in the summer where everything is brown. It's a different sort of spring from the lovely one at MWC but beautiful nevertheless. We visited Andy's parents in Thessaloniki and then went south to Rhodes for a week. And I have just returned (May 10) from a three-week vacation in Greece and we are both amazed with the fact that spring has indeed come to Delaware, as well as Greece! The fields of red poppies, daisies, and other wild flowers blooming all over Greece, along with the greenness of the grass and trees was a refreshing change from previous visits in the summer where everything is brown. It's a different sort of spring from the lovely one at MWC but beautiful nevertheless. We visited Andy's parents in Thessaloniki and then went south to Rhodes for a week. And I have just returned (May 10) from a three-week vacation in Greece and we are both amazed with the fact that spring has indeed come to Delaware, as well as Greece! The fields of red poppies, daisies, and other wild flowers blooming all over Greece, along with the greenness of the grass and trees was a refreshing change from previous visits in the summer where everything is brown. It's a different sort of spring from the lovely one at MWC but beautiful nevertheless. We visited Andy's parents in Thessaloniki and then went south to Rhodes for a week. And I have just returned (May 10) from a three-week vacation in Greece and we are both amazed with the fact that spring has indeed come to Delaware, as well as Greece! The fields of red poppies, daisies, and other wild flowers blooming all over Greece, along with the greenness of the grass and trees was a refreshing change from previous visits in the summer where everything is brown. It's a different sort of spring from the lovely one at MWC but beautiful nevertheless. We visited Andy's parents in Thessaloniki and then went south to Rhodes for a week. And I have just returned (May 10) from a three-week vacation in Greece and we are both amazed with the fact that spring has indeed come to Delaware, as well as Greece! The fields of red poppies, daisies, and other wild flowers blooming all over Greece, along with the greenness of the grass and trees was a refreshing change from previous visits in the summer where everything is brown. It's a different sort of spring from the lovely one at MWC but beautiful nevertheless. We visited Andy's parents in Thessaloniki and then went south to Rhodes for a week. And I have just returned (May 10) from a three-week vacation in Greece and we are both amazed with the fact that spring has indeed come to Delaware, as well as Greece! The fields of red poppies, daisies, and other wild flowers blooming all over Greece, along with the greenness of the grass and trees was a refreshing change from previous visits in the summer where everything is brown. It's a different sort of spring from the lovely one at MWC but beautiful nevertheless. We visited Andy's parents in Thessaloniki and then went south to Rhodes for a week. And I have just returned (May 10) from a three-week vacation in Greece and we are both amazed with the fact that spring has indeed come to Delaware, as well as Greece! The fields of red poppies, daisies, and other wild flowers blooming all over Greece, along with the greenness of the grass and trees was a refreshing change from previous visits in the summer where everything is brown. It's a different sort of spring from the lovely one at MWC but beautiful nevertheless. We visited Andy's parents in Thessaloniki and then went south to Rhodes for a week. And I have just returned (May 10) from a three-week vacation in Greece and we are both amazed with the fact that spring has indeed come to Delaware, as well as Greece! The fields of red poppies, daisies, and other wild flowers blooming all over Greece, along with the greenness of the grass and trees was a refreshing change from previous visits in the summer where everything is brown. It's a different sort of spring from the lovely one at MWC but beautiful nevertheless. We visited Andy's parents in Thessaloniki and then went south to Rhodes for a week. And I have just returned (May 10) from a three-week vacation in Greece and we are both amazed with the fact that spring has indeed come to Delaware, as well as Greece! The fields of red poppies, daisies, and other wild flowers blooming all over Greece, along with the greenness of the grass and trees was a refreshing change from previous visits in the summer where everything is brown. It's a different sort of spring from the lovely one at MWC but beautiful nevertheless. We visited Andy's parents in Thessaloniki and then went south to Rhodes for a week. And I have just returned (May 10) from a three-week vacation in Greece and we are both amazed with the fact that spring has indeed come to Delaware, as well as Greece! The fields of red poppies, daisies, and other wild flowers blooming all over Greece, along with the greenness of the grass and trees was a refreshing change from previous visits in the summer where everything is brown. It's a different sort of spring from the lovely one at MWC but beautiful nevertheless. We visited Andy's parents in Thessaloniki and then went south to Rhodes for a week. And I have just returned (May 10) from a three-week vacation in Greece and we are both amazed with the fact that spring has indeed come to Delaware, as well as Greece! The fields of red poppies, daisies, and other wild flowers blooming all over Greece, along with the greenness of the grass and trees was a refreshing change from previous visits in the summer where everything is brown. It's a different sort of spring from the lovely one at MWC but beautiful nevertheless. We visited Andy's parents in Thessaloniki and then went south to Rhodes for a week. And I have just returned (May 10) from a three-week vacation in Greece and we are both amazed with the fact that spring has indeed come to Delaware, as well as Greece! The fields of red poppies, daisies, and other wild flowers blooming all over Greece, along with the greenness of the grass and trees was a refreshing change from previous visits in the summer where everything is brown. It's a different sort of spring from the lovely one at MWC but beautiful nevertheless. We visited Andy's parents in Thessaloniki and then went south to Rhodes for a week. And I have just returned (May 10) from a three-week vacation in Greece and we are both amazed with the fact that spring has indeed come to Delaware, as well as Greece! The fields of red poppies, daisies, and other wild flowers blooming all over Greece, along with the greenness of the grass and trees was a refreshing change from previous visits in the summer where everything is brown. It's a different sort of spring from the lovely one at MWC but beautiful nevertheless. We visited Andy's parents in Thessaloniki and then went south to Rhodes for a week. And I have just returned (May 10) from a three-week vacation in Greece and we are both amazed with the fact that spring has indeed come to Delaware, as well as Greece! The fields of red poppies, daisies, and other wild flowers blooming all over Greece, along with the greenness of the grass and trees was a refreshing change from previous visits in the summer where everything is brown. It's a different sort of spring from the lovely one at MWC but beautiful nevertheless. We visited Andy's parents in Thessaloniki and then went south to Rhodes for a week. And I have just returned (May 10) from a three-week vacation in Greece and we are both amazed with the fact that spring has indeed come to Delaware, as well as Greece! The fields of red poppies, daisies, and other wild flowers blooming all over Greece, along with the greenness of the grass and trees was a refreshing change from previous visits in the summer where everything is brown. It's a different sort of spring from the lovely one at MWC but beautiful nevertheless. We visited Andy's parents in Thessaloniki and then went south to Rhodes for a week. And I have just returned (May 10) from a three-week vacation in Greece and we are both amazed with the fact that spring has indeed come to Delaware, as well as Greece! The fields of red poppies, daisies, and other wild flowers blooming all over Greece, along with the greenness of the grass and trees was a refreshing change from previous visits in the summer where everything is brown. It's a different sort of spring from the lovely one at MWC but beautiful nevertheless. We visited Andy's parents in Thessaloniki and then went south to Rhodes for a week. And I have just returned (May 10) from a three-week vacation in Greece and we are both amazed with the fact that spring has indeed come to Delaware, as well as Greece! The fields of red poppies, daisies, and other wild flowers blooming all over Greece, along with the greenness of the grass and trees was a refreshing change from previous visits in the summer where everything is brown. It's a different sort of spring from the lovely one at MWC but beautiful nevertheless. We visited Andy's parents in Thessaloniki and then went south to Rhodes for a week. And I have just returned (May 10) from a three-week vacation in Greece and we are both amazed with the fact that spring has indeed come to Delaware, as well as Greece! The fields of red poppies, daisies, and other wild flowers blooming all over Greece, along with the greenness of the grass and trees was a refreshing change from previous visits in the summer where everything is brown. It's a different sort of spring from the lovely one at MWC but beautiful nevertheless. We visited Andy's parents in Thessaloniki and then went south to Rhodes for a week. And I have just returned (May 10) from a three-week vacation in Greece and we are both amazed with the fact that spring has indeed come to Delaware, as well as Greece! The fields of red poppies, daisies, and other wild flowers blooming all over Greece, along with the greenness of the grass and trees was a refreshing change from previous visits in the summer where everything is brown. It's a different sort of spring from the lovely one at MWC but beautiful nevertheless. We visited Andy's parents in Thessaloniki and then went south to Rhodes for a week. And I have just returned (May 10) from a three-week vacation in Greece and we are both amazed with the fact that spring has indeed come to Delaware, as well as Greece! The fields of red poppies, daisies, and other wild flowers blooming all over Greece, along with the greenness of the grass and trees was a refreshing change from previous visits in the summer where everything is brown. It's a different sort of spring from the lovely one at MWC but beautiful nevertheless. We visited Andy's parents in Thessaloniki and then went south to Rhodes for a week. And I have just returned (May 10) from a three-week vacation in Greece and we are both amazed with the fact that spring has indeed come to Delaware, as well as Greece! The fields of red poppies, daisies, and other wild flowers blooming all over Greece, along with the greenness of the grass and trees was a refreshing change from previous visits in the summer where everything is brown. It's a different sort of spring from the lovely one at MWC but beautiful nevertheless. We visited Andy's parents in Thessaloniki and then went south to Rhodes for a week. And I have just returned (May 10) from a three-week vacation in Greece and we are both amazed with the fact that spring has indeed come to Delaware, as well as Greece! The fields of red poppies, daisies, and other wild flowers blooming all over Greece, along with the greenness of the grass and trees was a refreshing change from previous visits in the summer where everything is brown. It's a different sort of spring from the lovely one at MWC but beautiful nevertheless. We visited Andy's parents in Thessaloniki and then went south to Rhodes for a week. And I have just returned (May 10) from a three-week vacation in Greece and we are both amazed with the fact that spring has indeed come to Delaware, as well as Greece! The fields of red poppies, daisies, and other wild flowers blooming all over Greece, along with the greenness of the grass and trees was a refreshing change from previous visits in the summer where everything is brown. It's a different sort of spring from the lovely one at MWC but beautiful nevertheless. We visited Andy's parents in Thessaloniki and then went south to Rhodes for a week. And I have just returned (May 10) from a three-week vacation in Greece and we are both amazed with the fact that spring has indeed come to Delaware, as well as Greece! The fields of red poppies, daisies, and other wild flowers blooming all over Greece, along with the greenness of the grass and trees was a refreshing change from previous visits in the summer where everything is brown. It's a different sort of spring from the lovely one at MWC but beautiful nevertheless. We visited Andy's parents in Thessaloniki and then went south to Rhodes for a week. And I have just returned (May 10) from a three-week vacation in Greece and we are both amazed with the fact that spring has indeed come to Delaware, as well as Greece! The fields of red poppies, daisies, and other wild flowers blooming all over Greece, along with the greenness of the grass and trees was a refreshing change from previous visits in the summer where everything is brown. It's a different sort of spring from the lovely one at MWC but beautiful nevertheless. We visited Andy's parents in Thessaloniki and then went south to Rhodes for a week. And I have just returned (May 10) from a three-week vacation in Greece and we are both amazed with the fact that spring has indeed come to Delaware, as well as Greece! The fields of red poppies, daisies, and other wild flowers blooming all over Greece, along with the greenness of the grass and trees was a refreshing change from previous visits in the summer where everything is brown. It's a different sort of spring from the lovely one at MWC but beautiful nevertheless. We visited Andy's parents in Thessaloniki and then went south to Rhodes for a week. And I have just returned (May 10) from a three-week vacation in Greece and we are both amazed with the fact that spring has indeed come to Delaware, as well as Greece! The fields of red poppies, daisies, and other wild flowers blooming all over Greece, along with the greenness of the grass and trees was a refreshing change from previous visits in the summer where everything is brown. It's a different sort of spring from the lovely one at MWC but beautiful nevertheless. We visited Andy's parents in Thessaloniki and then went south to Rhodes for a week. And I have just returned (May 10) from a three-week vacation in Greece and we are both amazed with the fact that spring has indeed come to Delaware, as well as Greece! The fields of red poppies, daisies, and other wild flowers blooming all over Greece, along with the greenness of the grass and trees was a refreshing change from previous visits in the summer where everything is brown. It's a different sort of spring from the lovely one at MWC but beautiful nevertheless. We visited Andy's parents in Thessaloniki and then went south to Rhodes for a week. And I have just returned (May 10) from a three-week vacation in Greece and we are both amazed with the fact that spring has indeed come to Delaware, as well as Greece! The fields of red poppies, daisies, and other wild flowers blooming all over Greece, along with the greenness of the grass and trees was a refreshing change from previous visits in the summer where everything is brown. It's a different sort of spring from the lovely one at MWC but beautiful nevertheless. We visited Andy's parents in Thessaloniki and then went south to Rhodes for a week. And I have just returned (May 10) from a three-week vacation in Greece and we are both amazed with the fact that spring has indeed come to Delaware, as well as Greece! The fields of red poppies, daisies, and other wild flowers blooming all over Greece, along with the greenness of the grass and trees was a refreshing change from previous visits in the summer where everything is brown. It's a different sort of spring from the lovely one at MWC but beautiful nevertheless. We visited Andy's parents in Thessaloniki and then went south to Rhodes for a week. And I have just returned (May 10) from a three-week vacation in Greece and we are both amazed with the fact that spring has indeed come to Delaware, as well as Greece! The fields of red poppies, daisies, and other wild flowers blooming all over Greece, along with the greenness of the grass and trees was a refreshing change from previous visits in the summer where everything is brown. It's a different sort of spring from the lovely one at MWC but beautiful nevertheless. We visited Andy's parents in Thessaloniki and then went south to Rhodes for a week. And I have just returned (May 10) from a three-week vacation in Greece and we are both amazed with the fact that spring has indeed come to Delaware, as well as Greece! The fields of red poppies, daisies, and other wild flowers blooming all over Greece, along with the greenness of the grass and trees was a refreshing change from previous visits in the summer where everything is brown. It's a different sort of spring from the lovely one at MWC but beautiful nevertheless. We visited Andy's parents in Thessaloniki and then went south to Rhodes for a week. And I have just returned (May 10) from a three-week vacation in Greece and we are both amazed with the fact that spring has indeed come to Delaware, as well as Greece! The fields of red poppies, daisies, and other wild flowers blooming all over Greece, along with the greenness of the grass and trees was a refreshing change from previous visits in the summer where everything is brown. It's a different sort of spring from the lovely one at MWC but beautiful nevertheless. We visited Andy's parents in Thessaloniki and then went south to Rhodes for a week. And I have just returned (May 10) from a three-week vacation in Greece and we are both amazed with the fact that spring has indeed come to Delaware, as well as Greece! The fields of red poppies, daisies, and other wild flowers blooming all over Greece, along with the greenness of the grass and trees was a refreshing change from previous visits in the summer where everything is brown. It's a different sort of spring from the lovely one at MWC but beautiful nevertheless. We visited Andy's parents in Thessaloniki and then went south to Rhodes for a week. And I have just returned (May 10) from a three-week vacation in Greece and we are both amazed with the fact that spring has indeed come to Delaware, as well as Greece! The fields of red poppies, daisies, and other wild flowers blooming all over Greece, along with the greenness of the grass and trees was a refreshing change from previous visits in the summer where everything is brown. It's a different sort of spring from the lovely one at MWC but beautiful nevertheless. We visited Andy's parents in Thessaloniki and then went south to Rhodes for a week. And I have just returned (May 10) from a three-week vacation in Greece and we are both amazed with the fact that spring has indeed come to Delaware, as well as Greece! The fields of red poppies, daisies, and other wild flowers blooming all over Greece, along with the greenness of the grass and trees was a refreshing change from previous visits in the summer where everything is brown. It's a different sort of spring from the lovely one at MWC but beautiful nevertheless. We visited Andy's parents in Thessaloniki and then went south to Rhodes for a week. And I have just returned (May 10) from a three-week vacation in Greece and we are both amazed with the fact that spring has indeed come to Delaware, as well as Greece! The fields of red poppies, daisies, and other wild flowers blooming all over Greece, along with the greenness of the grass and trees was a refreshing change from previous visits in the summer where everything is brown. It's a different sort of spring from the lovely one at MWC but beautiful nevertheless. We visited Andy's parents in Thessaloniki and then went south to Rhodes for a week. And I have just returned (May 10) from a three-week vacation in Greece and we are both amazed with the fact that spring has indeed come to Delaware, as well as Greece! The fields of red poppies, daisies, and other wild flowers blooming all over Greece, along with the greenness of the grass and trees was a refreshing change from previous visits in the summer where everything is brown. It's a different sort of spring from the lovely one at MWC but beautiful nevertheless. We visited Andy's parents in Thessaloniki and then went south to Rhodes for a week. And I have just returned (May 10) from a three-week vacation in Greece and we are both amazed with the fact that spring has indeed come to Delaware, as well as Greece! The fields of red poppies, daisies, and other wild flowers blooming all over Greece, along with the greenness of the grass and trees was a refreshing change from previous visits in the summer where everything is brown. It's a different sort of spring from the lovely one at MWC but beautiful nevertheless. We visited Andy's parents in Thessaloniki and then went south to Rhodes for a week. And I have just returned (May 10) from a three-week vacation in Greece and we are both amazed with the fact that spring has indeed come to Delaware, as well as Greece! The fields of red poppies, daisies, and other wild flowers blooming all over Greece, along with the greenness of the grass and trees was a refreshing change from previous visits in the summer where everything is brown. It's a different sort of spring from the lovely one at MWC but beautiful nevertheless. We visited Andy's parents in Thessaloniki and then went south to Rhodes for a week. And I have just returned (May 10) from a three-week vacation in Greece and we are both amazed with the fact that spring has indeed come to Delaware, as well as Greece! The fields of red poppies, daisies, and other wild flowers blooming all over Greece, along with the greenness of the grass and trees was a refreshing change from previous visits in the summer where everything is brown. It's a different sort of spring from the lovely one at MWC but beautiful nevertheless. We visited Andy's parents in Thessaloniki and then went south to Rhodes for a week. And I have just returned (May 10) from a three-week vacation in Greece and we are both amazed with the fact that spring has indeed come to Delaware, as well as Greece! The fields of red poppies, daisies, and other wild flowers blooming all over Greece, along with the greenness of the grass and trees was a refreshing change from previous visits in the summer where everything is brown. It's a different sort of spring from the lovely one at MWC but beautiful nevertheless. We visited Andy's parents in Thessaloniki and then went south to Rhodes for a week. And I have just returned (May 10) from a three-week vacation in Greece and we are both amazed with the fact that spring has indeed come to Delaware, as well as Greece! The fields of red poppies, daisies, and other wild flowers blooming all over Greece, along with the greenness of the grass and trees was a refreshing change from previous visits in the summer where everything is brown. It's a different sort of spring from the lovely one at MWC but beautiful nevertheless. We visited Andy's parents in Thessaloniki and then went south to Rhodes for a week. And I have just returned (May 10) from a three-week vacation in Greece and we are both amazed with the fact that spring has indeed come to Delaware, as well as Greece! The fields of red poppies, daisies, and other wild flowers blooming all over Greece, along with the greenness of the grass and trees was a refreshing change from previous visits in the summer where everything is brown. It's a different sort of spring from the lovely one at MWC but beautiful nevertheless. We visited Andy's parents in Thessaloniki and then went south to Rhodes for a week. And I have just returned (May 10) from a three-week vacation in Greece and we are both amazed with the fact that spring has indeed come to Delaware, as well as Greece! The fields of red poppies, daisies, and other wild flowers blooming all over Greece, along with the greenness of the grass and trees was a refreshing change from previous visits in the summer where everything is brown. It's a different sort of spring from the lovely one at MWC but beautiful nevertheless. We visited Andy's parents in Thessaloniki and then went south to Rhodes for a week. And I have just returned (May 10) from a three-week vacation in Greece and we are both amazed with the fact that spring has indeed come to Delaware, as well as Greece! The fields of red poppies, daisies, and other wild flowers blooming all over Greece, along with the greenness of the grass and trees was a refreshing change from previous visits in the summer where everything is brown. It's a different sort of spring from the lovely one at MWC but beautiful nevertheless. We visited Andy's parents in Thessaloniki and then went south to Rhodes for a week. And I have just returned (May 10) from a three-week vacation in Greece and we are both amazed with the fact that spring has indeed come to Delaware, as well as Greece! The fields of red poppies, daisies, and other wild flowers blooming all over Greece, along with the greenness of the grass and trees was a refreshing change from previous visits in the summer where everything is brown. It's a different sort of spring from the lovely one at MWC but beautiful nevertheless. We visited Andy's parents in Thessaloniki and then went south to Rhodes for a week. And I have just returned (May 10) from a three-week vacation in Greece and we are both amazed with the fact that spring has indeed come to Delaware, as well as Greece! The fields of red poppies, daisies, and other wild flowers blooming all over Greece, along with the greenness of the grass and trees was a refreshing change from previous visits in the summer where everything is brown. It's a different sort of spring from the lovely one at MWC but beautiful nevertheless. We visited Andy's parents in Thessaloniki and then went south to Rhodes for a week. And I have just returned (May 10) from a three-week vacation in Greece and we are both amazed with the fact that spring has indeed come to Delaware, as well as Greece! The fields of red poppies, daisies, and other wild flowers blooming all over Greece, along with the greenness of the grass and trees was a refreshing change from previous visits in the summer where everything is brown. It's a different sort of spring from the lovely one at MWC but beautiful nevertheless. We visited Andy's parents in Thessaloniki and then went south to Rhodes for a week. And I have just returned (May 10) from a three-week vacation in Greece and we are both amazed with the fact that spring has indeed come to Delaware, as well as Greece! The fields of red poppies, daisies, and other wild flowers blooming all over Greece, along with the greenness of the grass and trees was a refreshing change from previous visits in the summer where everything is brown. It's a different sort of spring from the lovely one at MWC but beautiful nevertheless. We visited Andy's parents in Thessaloniki and then went south to Rhodes for a week. And I have just returned (May 10) from a three-week vacation in Greece and we are both amazed with the fact that spring has indeed come to Delaware, as well as Greece! The fields of red poppies, daisies, and other wild flowers blooming all over Greece, along with the greenness of the grass and trees was a refreshing change from previous visits in the summer where everything is brown. It's a different sort of spring from the lovely one at MWC but beautiful nevertheless. We visited Andy's parents in Thessaloniki and then went south to Rhodes for a week. And I have just returned (May 10) from a three-week vacation in Greece and we are both amazed with the fact that spring has indeed come to Delaware, as well as Greece! The fields of red poppies, daisies, and other wild flowers blooming all over Greece, along with the greenness of the grass and trees was a refreshing change from previous visits in the summer where everything is brown. It's a different sort of spring from the lovely one at MWC but beautiful nevertheless. We visited Andy's parents in Thessaloniki and then went south to Rhodes for a week. And I have just returned (May 10) from a three-week vacation in Greece and we are both amazed with the fact that spring has indeed come to Delaware, as well as Greece! The fields of red poppies, daisies, and other wild flowers blooming all over Greece, along with the greenness of the grass and trees was a refreshing change from previous visits in the summer where everything is brown. It's a different sort of spring from the lovely one at MWC but beautiful nevertheless. We visited Andy's parents in Thessaloniki and then went south to Rhodes for a week. And I have just returned (May 10) from a three-week vacation in Greece and we are both amazed with the fact that spring has indeed come to Delaware, as well as Greece! The fields of red poppies, daisies, and other wild flowers blooming all over Greece, along with the greenness of the grass and trees was a refreshing change from previous visits in the summer where everything is brown. It's a different sort of spring from the lovely one at MWC but beautiful nevertheless. We visited Andy's parents in Thessaloniki and then went south to Rhodes for a week. And I have just returned (May 10) from a three-week vacation in Greece and we are both amazed with the fact that spring has indeed come to Delaware, as well as Greece! The fields of red poppies, daisies, and other wild flowers blooming all over Greece, along with the greenness of the grass and trees was a refreshing change from previous visits in the summer where everything is brown. It's a different sort of spring from the lovely one at MWC but beautiful nevertheless. We visited Andy's parents in Thessaloniki and then went south to Rhodes for a week. And I have just returned (May 10) from a three-week vacation in Greece and we are both amazed with the fact that spring has indeed come to Delaware, as well as Greece! The fields of red poppies, daisies, and other wild flowers blooming all over Greece, along with the greenness of the grass and trees was a refreshing change from previous visits in the summer where everything is brown. It's a different sort of spring from the lovely one at MWC but beautiful nevertheless. We visited Andy's parents in Thessaloniki and then went south to Rhodes for a week. And I have just returned (May 10) from a three-week vacation in Greece and we are both amazed with the fact that spring has indeed come to Delaware, as well as Greece! The fields of red poppies, daisies, and other wild flowers blooming all over Greece, along with the greenness of the grass and trees was a refreshing change from previous visits in the summer where everything is brown. It's a different sort of spring from the lovely one at MWC but beautiful nevertheless. We visited Andy's parents in Thessaloniki and then went south to Rhodes for a week. And I have just returned (May 10) from a three-week vacation in Greece and we are both amazed with the fact that spring has indeed come to Delaware, as well as Greece! The fields of red poppies, daisies, and other wild flowers blooming all over Greece, along with the greenness of the grass and trees was a refreshing change from previous visits in the summer where everything is brown. It's a different sort of spring from the lovely one at MWC but beautiful nevertheless. We visited Andy's parents in Thessaloniki and then went south to Rhodes for a week. And I have just returned (May 10) from a three-week vacation in Greece and we are both amazed with the fact that spring has indeed come to Delaware, as well as Greece! The fields of red poppies, daisies, and other wild flowers blooming all over Greece, along with the greenness of the grass and trees was a refreshing change from previous visits in the summer where everything is brown. It's a different sort of spring from the lovely one at MWC but beautiful nevertheless. We visited Andy's parents in Thessaloniki and then went south to Rhodes for a week. And I have just returned (May 10) from a three-week vacation in Greece and we are both amazed with the fact that spring has indeed come to Delaware, as well as Greece! The fields of red poppies, daisies, and other wild flowers blooming all over Greece, along with the greenness of the grass and trees was a refreshing change from previous visits in the summer where everything is brown. It's a different sort of spring from the lovely one at MWC but beautiful nevertheless. We visited Andy's parents in Thessaloniki and then went south to Rhodes for a week. And I have just returned (May 10) from a three-week vacation in Greece and we are both amazed with the fact that spring has indeed come to Delaware, as well as Greece! The fields of red poppies, daisies, and other wild flowers blooming all over Greece, along with the greenness of the grass and trees was a refreshing change from previous visits in the summer where everything is brown. It's a different sort of spring from the lovely one at MWC but beautiful nevertheless. We visited Andy's parents in Thessaloniki and then went south to Rhodes for a week. And I have just returned (May 10) from a three-week vacation in Greece and we are both amazed with the fact that spring has indeed come to Delaware,

Lyon and Dick live in Glensboro, Conn. with their son David, age 11. Dick is working on his master's and she is teaching half days while he's studying. They spend Christmas in Waynesboro, Va. with his parents.

Jaïs Murphy Riefler and Monte are fine and their children are getting so big. She saw Judy LaRue here in N.J. before Judy went to Atlanta. They had a reunion with Linda Bergeron who lives in New York City. They also met Betty Brooks Nelson who was married last April, 1969. Bobbie and Doug are busy working and living in the excellent area. Best wishes to you, Bobbie, on your marriage!

Along with writing news letters and getting together with friends, Linda has become quite active in a singing organization called Sweet Adelines, Inc. She belongs to the San Fernando Valley Chapter, and the organization is nationwide. She thoroughly recommends it for any women who love to sing. They sing barbershop harmony and there are so many related activities. She sings lead in a quartet called the "Shear Delights" and they have a ball. It does sound like a lot of fun. She closes her letter with a plea for you Madison first floor girls to write! Thank you for writing.

I received a lovely letter from Betsy Heuston Hansen whom I lost touch with for the last few years and now I know why. She has returned to live in their ninth home in the past two and a half years! They are living in their own home in Claremont, Calif. 92301, and they feel like civilians for the first time in their lives. Carl, an Army officer, wears civilian clothes to his class at the Naval Postgraduate School in Monterey, studying Operations Analysis; they live in a civilian community, go to a civilian hospital, and the doctor and hospital to have her second child. Their daughter, Kristen, was born in March and is eagerly looking forward to having a new baby. Betsy would love to know about any MWC girls in her area. Thanks for the letter, Betsy, and let me know about the organization.

Homcoming plans are being made at the College for classes having reunions next year, which as you know includes the largest group of girls, Class of '62. It's planned for April 16-18, while the College is in session, so accommodations will be made in 2336 on the main campus. I hope this will not discourage you all from coming and making our big 10th a big success. More information will be sent just as that weekend reserved for the Class of '61.

Connie Bots Logethits

We left school, Jean Geider Mears visits occasionally. She left after our sophomore year and graduated from U. of Florida and went to work for J.W. Harris, an advertising agency in New York City. She met her husband there and moved to Novato, Calif. (near San Francisco) and became the mother of two daughters. Their second daughter was born last year in the spring.

Kitty also hears from Sue Driscoll, who is now living in Maryland (outside Washington, D.C.) Jimmy '64, Kathleen almost 3 and Christine 2, keep her busy. Sue is also taking courses towards her master's degree and substitute teaching. Thank you, Kitty, for reasonable contact!

John, the '63 wanted to know where Joyce Gentile Richman has settled. She and husband, Charles, are in Winston-Salem, N.C. where he is teaching in a high school. She has a daughter 2 and is expecting again in September. Our parents are neighbors so we keep in reasonable contact!

The Alumnae Office has sent me names and addresses (whenever known) of classmates who have "checked down" in the last few months. Thought you would like to see the list in case you have some information concerning them or if you have a message to pass.

Cherry Hall, N.J. 08834, Mrs. Karen Scheraga, Young, 19. By the way, Karen, I am sure I have seen your sister, Langhorne '65 on television doing network commercial work and fit in the details. Mrs. Georgiana Leventis Paul (Dennis) 4000 Tunlaw Road, N.W. Washington, D.C. Mrs. Cecilia Ann Salisbury, 21801, Sally Abbott Pumptius (James M.) 303 W. Perrin Avenue, husband, 19. Jim returned from Viet Nam and is now stationed in Columbus, Ohio, where he does Army physicals. Sally is still in general practice in Springfield. Their daughter is just over a year old now.

And congratulations to Sally for being a mother! Warren T. Terrell (Warren T.) 4916 Lake Forest Drive, Atlanta, Ga. 30305, Elizabeth Goldblatt Shapiro, Bronx 11212, and William S. Waller, 13200 Remington Road, Colonial Heights, Va. 23834. Mrs. Marian Adams Spain (Carl) 111 Grant St., Eden, N.C. 27228, Mrs. Donna Adams (Bob) 301 St. Andrews Circle, Laurinburg, N.C. 28552, Mrs. Sue Skelton Tunison (James) 1016 Buckingham Ave., Syracuse, N.Y. 13210.

Marion McLean Stanton and husband, Merrell, are parents of Christopher Rogers, born early in 1970. He is their first child. Bill and Barbara Selwa Jesser have their second child, Nicole Elizabeth also born in January.

I love a letter from you, Debbie Dale Meloney. I just had to let you read it for yourselves: Just a quick note to say that after a goodly number of years, Jim and I were so very richly blessed with the birth of our first angel, Laura Elizabeth, born 2-13, '69.

Even though, after seven years working together with my husband in our family corporation, we are spending our every moment enjoying Laurie while she's napping and I continue with all my corporate duties of secretary-treasurer in my newly-designed-and-built office here at the house—complete with direct telephone line to the office located also in our town. Needless to say, I'm really kept busy, but Laurie and I have had a lot of fun together and enjoys working with the (she's terrific on the calculator!).

Met my roommate, Sue Grady Gibson in Williamsburg last June when we were down in Richmond visiting with friends in the fall. Sue and I have had a hard time finding each other, but really glad since she was in our wedding! Other suitcase, Susan Whitehead Clait is at the Air Academy with Mary Husband and her family. They had their girl after two boys. Sue Grady Gibson has two darling daughters.

I recently heard from Diane ("Dean") Bradshaw Sheppard. She's totally disappointed, and I've been trying to tell her for years.

All for now, kindly.

Debbie

As for myself, the Taylors are all fine—except one, the youngest of the baby due the last of October. Kate (now 5) already has two brothers (age 10 and 14) and is hoping for a sister.

Please write and let me know all your news.

Until next time.

Fai

'63 Barbara ("Tink") Booth Wilhelm (Mrs. Frank J.) 113 Maryland Street, Oceanville, Calif. 92054

Barbara ("B") Prall Granger (Mrs. Robert P.) 3840 Wellesley Drive, Rocky Mount, N.C. 27801

Connie Waterman Lambert (Mrs. Alan G.) 9 Hillcrest Drive, Chelmsford, Mass. 01824

Greetings: Can you believe it's been a year since I've had a change of address!!! We do love it here in Rocky Mount and we'll hate to leave. I hope you will be happy in the positive thoughts anyway!

My thanks to Bev Bird Miller who sent in a long note in the spring. She and Paul are proud parents of a daughter, Tracey Susan, now about nine months old. They are living in Reisterstown, Md. and Bev would like to hear from any MWCers who are more area. Since finishing graduate school in New Hampshire, Susan O'Connor is teaching in Santa Cruz, Cal.

After reading that Lida Bergman was a missing classmate, her sister Mika Bergman called me to get an address and contact activities. The summer of '63 Lida and Mika went to Europe for five weeks and then Lida went to work for the Dept. of Social Services in New York City. She came to the U. of Pa. where she received her MSW in '65. She has also made two more trips to Europe—Soviet Union in '66 and Scandinavia and Soviet Union in '68. She is now back with the Welfare Dept. and living at 25 88th St., Apt. 4A, N.Y.C.

I have several "requests" for Nancy Maynard Gebelein's (Mrs. Conrad) address during the past few years. Now I am able to oblige. She lives at 1000 Oakwood Road, Park Station, Long Island, N.Y. 11776. She received her masters degree in zoology at the U. of Miami several years ago and will be finishing her Ph.D. at the Institute of Marine Sciences at the U. of Miami within a year (in absentia). Meanwhile, she is doing research on the pollution of Long Island Sound at the U. of Miami. At the U. of Miami, Conrad is on the faculty there in the Dept. of Earth and Space Sciences. Now she is no longer among the missing! Nancy, please do keep in touch often.

Several notes which were forwarded to me from the Alumnae Association—Nancy Richardson Ferrenbach was expecting her second child in April. Son Charles is 3½. Sara Gerberghaus is now Mrs. David Ottewill. She and David were married in March, 1969. On June 12, 1969 they are expecting No. 1, a son. Doctors from MWC include Barbara Blew, who works for Burlington Industries; Janet Davis, who works for the Army Red Cross; and Ann Garvey, Gerson, who is working toward a masters in psychology.

Our nation's capital, D.C., has attracted Sue Meyer, who lives in Georgetown and works for the government; Jim Sluager, who teaches for a private school in Arlington (After leaving MWC in 1962, Jim graduated from the University of Arizona); Pat Bergees Taback, a computer programmer for the government, who recently returned from Europe with lawyer husband, Gary; and Barbara Patricia Stuckey, who teaches high school, as does her hubby.

Patricia Pruski Fausnik now lives in Alexandria with her husband, John. An Air Force physician, he may make his wife when he get out of the service. After marriage, Pat spent two years at the Harvard Medical School in the Health Services and was in the same class as her husband. She is a daughter of Providence, R.I. In June, 1968, she received her Masters Degree in Education and then, after spending a year as a Reading Resource Teacher in Maryland's Public Schools.

Leila Reagan Cleveland and Ed live near Philadelphia and work in social work. Pam Ames Mueller and Russell, who both have received their masters degrees in Math, are living in Libertyville, Mo., with their child.

Mary Lou Pollock Lundberg and Charlie live in Huntington Beach, California with their little son and two daughters. Speaking of twins, Mary Lamb Bond Moon has two sets of twin girls, Antiolette and Anne, who are about a year and a half old. Dana and Peter Carter are nearly 18 months old. Her only son, Trip, who is four months old, is named "Land of the Midgets."

She is the catalyst for her husband, who is an investment broker, live in Richmond. I frequently see Laog Scruggs '55 on national television commercials, Lang, I'd love to hear from you.

If any of you have addresses for the following classmates, please notify me. The lost alumnae are: Jane Mast English, Fran-

Building Co. in the Washington area. Judy sent news of Margaret Fletcher Gresham, who lives in Rockledge, Fla. with her family (They have 3 sons); Lois Murphy Akin and Sue Pennington, Hinchey live near Judy in Northern Virginia.

Another happy note: Gwyn Dylis was married in March to Richard S. Forester, U.S.A. On April 17, 1970, Janet Lawson Gibson's daughter was flower girl. Dick will begin his second tour in Viet Nam in July. Gwyn plans to continue teaching in the near future. Our congratulations and best wishes.

I found Linda Morrison Douglas living in my area. We have a very close relationship on old friends while playing golf the past couple of months. Linda's husband, Dave, is in the Marine Corps. Not much is new with the class of '63. I will be leaving for the Marines in June but at this point we don't know if we will be moving or not. You news is so forward, though so please write. One last note: Betsy Lyle plans to be married in July. Will have the details next issue.

'64 Carol Mary Smith (Mrs. Benjamin G. Jr.) 2001 1st Avenue, Warsaw 22772

Carol Morris Edwards (Mrs. Tacy L.) 2395 Jeffery Drive, Roanoke 24018

Rhett Pharr Sayer (Mrs. John D.) 87Twinning Lane, Trenton, N.J. 08620

Juliet Presson Anderson (Mrs. Carl G.) 1000 Mendon Avenue, Falls Church 22042

According to the notes I have received, the class of '64 is now scattered to the four corners of the nation. There may be a long-lost classmate near you.

The New England area is represented by several alumnae, including Susan Rowe Bunting, Sue, Dave, and their children, Nicole and John, who are glad to see you in the north. Massachusetts has always been juggled around for years by the Marine Corps. There is an account executive in nearby Boston, and Sue is co-educating an old farmhouse, plans to teach in elementary school next year. Anne Leetee Holland and Mike live in Lynnfield, Mass., with their daughter and son. Anne teaches part-time. Coco Jennings is living near Boston. (Coco, what is your married name?)

New Yorkers from MWC include Barbara Blew, who works for Burlington Industries; Janet Davis, who works for the Army Red Cross; and Ann Garvey, Gerson, who is working toward a masters in psychology.

Our nation's capital, D.C., has attracted Sue Meyer, who lives in Georgetown and works for the government; Jim Sluager, who teaches for a private school in Arlington (After leaving MWC in 1962, Jim graduated from the University of Arizona); Pat Bergees Taback, a computer programmer for the government, who recently returned from Europe with lawyer husband, Gary; and Barbara Patricia Stuckey, who teaches high school, as does her hubby.

Patricia Pruski Fausnik now lives in Alexandria with her husband, John. An Air Force physician, he may make his wife when he get out of the service. After marriage, Pat spent two years at the Harvard Medical School in the Health Services and was in the same class as her husband. She is a daughter of Providence, R.I. In June, 1968, she received her Masters Degree in Education and then, after spending a year as a Reading Resource Teacher in Maryland's Public Schools.

Leila Reagan Cleveland and Ed live near Philadelphia and work in social work. Pam Ames Mueller and Russell, who both have received their masters degrees in Math, are living in Libertyville, Mo., with their child.

Mary Lou Pollock Lundberg and Charlie live in Huntington Beach, California with their little son and two daughters. Speaking of twins, Mary Lamb Bond Moon has two sets of twin girls, Antiolette and Anne, who are about a year and a half old. Dana and Peter Carter are nearly 18 months old. Her only son, Trip, who is four months old, is named "Land of the Midgets."

She is the catalyst for her husband, who is an investment broker, live in Richmond. I frequently see Laog Scruggs '55 on national television commercials, Lang, I'd love to hear from you.

If any of you have addresses for the following classmates, please notify me. The lost alumnae are: Jane Mast English, Fran-

'62 Sheila Rose Cooper 445 E. 58th Street, New York, N.Y. 10022

Linda K. Barwick 4338 Carmello Drive, Apt. 201 Annandale 22093

Patricia Mackey Taylor (Mrs. Robert) 106 S. Boxwood Hampton 23366

Greetings:

Hope this newsletter finds you well and happy. Received such a nice letter from Kitty Berner Erb. She and husband, Bob, live in the Washington area. First year of marriage—Parris Island, S.C., Camp Lejeune, N.C., and Wilmington, Del. Since 1964 the Erbs have lived in Englishtown, N.J., where Laura, a manager with Hercules, Inc. They have three daughters, Katherine, age six who goes to kindergarten, Rebecca, four and a half, who will go next year, and Laura, age one. Kitty says Katherine and Laura have brown hair and eyes like her. Bob, Law, and Rebecca have red hair and looks like herself. Kitty. I think with that red hair, Rebecca must look like her mother. Kitty says she has been with the girls but finds time to teach senior high girls in Sunday School in Englishtown. I am sure Kitty will be glad to hear from you. Delaware in June. Seems to me there is a MWC backer in Wilmington—hope "you" it can get to gether.

Kitty had some news concerning classmates. Joy Anna Frank is in Washington now. Diana and Joe Mills. Frank is in Viet Nam (a major now) but should be back in July of August. She says they write often, but haven't seen each other since

The Alumnae Association has at lone last embarked on what may prove ultimately to be one of its most critical undertakings—a search for some 8,000 to 9,000 alumnae “missing” from the files. Such a vast project must be considered long range, but the Association, realizing that it can never prove “ruly” an effective organization without accurate records, seeks the assistance of the more than 9,000 alumnae whose names and addresses are on file, present members of the College community—both faculty and students—parents and friends to assist in providing appropriate information. Below is a partial list of some of the “lost.” If you know the whereabouts of any of these—or any others—please contact:

Mary Washington Alumnae Association, Attention: Records Section, Box 1315, College Station, Fredericksburg, Virginia 22401

Class of 1914

Broaddus, Lottie
Coleman, Elsie
Daniel, Helen L.
Diedrich, Anna
Marfy, Nettie
Nicholas, Margaret
Perry, Pauline
Scott, Mary Norris
Scrimger, Bertha
Taylor, Ethel
Willis, Isabel
Worthing, Belle

Class of 1915

Dannehl, Marytha Theresa
Parker, Nannie Waller
Pearce, Rachel Ray
Lawings, Lucille Beverly
Rue, Julia Latane
Seay, Rosalie Maude

Class of 1917

Atkinson, Estelle
Bland, Anne Wilson
Broaddus, Elsie
Chandler, Mildred
Chapman, Fannie Carr
Constock, Mabel R.
Daugherty, Doris Langley
de Laeghey
Duncan, Julia Rue
Frazier, Kathryn Ellis
Glenn, Mabel Lewis
Harwood, Maria Louise
Holman, Mary Evans
Jeffries, Margaret
Jones, Ruth Elizabeth
Leary, Harriett
Lokey, Nettie
McKee, Elizabeth
Pender, Eleanor
Poindexter, Martha Rosalie
Robertson, Helen Virginia
Saunders, Estelle Marie
Vance, Helen C.
White, Edythe Magruder

Class of 1919

Atkinson, Estelle
Bland, Anne Wilson
Broaddus, Elsie
Chandler, Mildred
Chapman, Fannie Carr
Constock, Mabel R.
Daugherty, Doris Langley
de Laeghey
Duncan, Julia Rue
Frazier, Kathryn Ellis
Glenn, Mabel Lewis
Harwood, Maria Louise
Holman, Mary Evans
Jeffries, Margaret
Jones, Ruth Elizabeth
Leary, Harriett
Lokey, Nettie
McKee, Elizabeth
Pender, Eleanor
Poindexter, Martha Rosalie
Robertson, Helen Virginia
Saunders, Estelle Marie
Vance, Helen C.
White, Edythe Magruder

Class of 1920

Biddlecomb, Florence
Brangan, Beatrice
Brewster, Lillian
Burhans, Alice
Buxton, Mary Byrd
Brams, Mrs. Henrietta Drexler
Hogan, Ann
McKenney, Helen
Martin, Fay

Pand, Dorothy
Wilkinson, Dorothy
Walker, Selie B.

Class of 1921

Hall, Mrs. Emeline Anderson
Bassett, Betsy
Billingsley, Lucy
Cawthorn, Mrs. Dorothy Childress
Cunningham, Anne Lee
Early, Elizabeth
Ellison, Julia
Fox, Ellen
Frazier, Virginia
Gillet, Gladys Drysdale
Lordon, Mrs. Nannie Warren Gray
Herriot, Cleodora
Gordon, Mrs. Willie Mae Moore
Muselman, Virginia
Sanford, Eleanor
Snyder, Mary A.
Spilman, Mary Alice
Jesse, Quare
Johnson, Mrs. Cara Welts
Wood, Bernice

Class of 1921

Burruss, Earline Meredith
Broaddus, Mrs. Margaret J. Daniel
Carter, Winnie Davis
Costes, Ruby
Cogbill, Virginia
Farinholt, Virginia C.
Freeman, Josephine
Gilliam, Eunice Harle
Haynie, Virginia
Liles, Lillian
Wills, Heloe Esther
Morrison, Elizabeth Anna
Rice, Annie Russell
Seward, Dorothy
Stearns, Elizabeth
Thomas, Helen R.
Ware, Juliet H.
White, Inez D.

Class of 1928

Blaisdel, Irene Compton
Brown, Mrs. Virginia Irene Lundy
Hersh, Edna Meixner
Jones, Anna Elizabeth
Lennard, Ellen Elizabeth
Meeks, Virginia Moore
Moore, Nannie Louise
Puster, Miriam Margaret
Ricks, Della Elizabeth
Smith, Elsie Marie
Snead, Lela Virginia
Wall, Mrs. Margaret Twilford

Class of 1930

Anderson, Virginia Mae
Beale, Effie Louise
Bowdell, Mildred Elizabeth
Brown, Virginia Maude
Cannady, Ruth Jerrell
Coddington, Dorothy Jane
Coteman, Mrs. Varina Pate Britt
Day, Emmett Mitchell
Driver, Lottie Elizabeth
Fuhrer, Helen Alberta
Gregory, Mary Seal
Gutowski, Mrs. Zillah Marye
Rhoades
Hansbrough, Elizabeth Helen
Kerr, Marion Sirling
McGee, Maria Louise
Mugrove, Mrs. Margaret Lee
Smith
O'Brien, Doris Irene
Ralph, Evelyn Blanche
Saunders, Mrs. Helen Margaret
Hyle
Smith, Elizabeth Courts
Smith, Isabel Amelia
Snead, Nancy Katherine

Sikes, Juanita Dora
Timberlake, Marion Eddy
Williams, Claudia Mildred
Woodworth, Mrs. Eleanor Gray
Thomas

Class of 1940

Adams, Jane Clair
Bennett, Mrs. Anita Withelmia
Pepmeyer
Blumhuth, Mrs. Madelyn Carpenter Flynn
Brewer, Mary Macallum
Cockerill, Mrs. Lulu Adams Bray
Cooke, Sarah Elizabeth
Cootes, Kathleen Clarke
Crowder, Mrs. Leonora Caroline Weiss
Ellis, Mrs. Elsie Harris Dunn
Fike, Mrs. Virginia Lee
Gravett, Josephine Blair
Jenkins, Catherine Virginia
Kurke, Mrs. Dorothy Evelyn Goodman
Lundy, Mrs. Elizabeth Frances
Hali
McLamb, Reba Aida
Minor, Helen Werner
Moley, Adeline Withelmia
Overman, Margaret Anne
Pearson, Mrs. Susan Woodward
Roe, Helen Dale
Rucker, Catherine Ann
Sharp, Nannie Louise
Smith, Virginia Adair
Spence, Elmer Lee
Widman, Jean Tolmudge
Wolton, Lorraine
Wyll, Kathryn

Class of 1941

Annesley, Ruth Eleanor
Ashley, Alice K.
Beckwith, Ethel Florence
Bodridge, Mrs. Mary Miller Crigler
Brooks, Rose Helen
Buglia, Mrs. Winifrede Lorraine Dove
Chambers, Thelma Antoinette
Clagett, Alice June
Cockerill, Mrs. Lulu Adams Bray
Cornwell, Elsie Mae
Curtis, Mrs. Virginia Marie Davis
DePans, Barbara Ann
Dickinson, Norma Lee
Edmondson, Geraldine
Edwards, Mrs. Jo Lee Fleet
Faulconer, Carol Dent
Gliman, Margaret Amy
Harker, Elizabeth Emma
Harrison, Martha Elizabeth
Hill, Alice Almida
Inskip, Josephine
Johnson, Mrs. Mary Lee Pittman
Kellage, Hazel Corbin
Landrum, Mary Etta
Masters, Mrs. Amelia Teresa
Lindicum
Miller, Biddy
Mitchell, Edith Louise
Oliver, Mary Emily
Pool, Mrs. LaVelle Phillips
Riley, Mrs. Dorothy Crenshaw Day
Selby, Lucy Elizabeth
Snow, Elizabeth Mae
Summerfield, Eleanor Mae
Thayer, Mrs. Frances Elizabeth
Dugger
Williams, Evelyn Rose
Wolton, Lorraine

Class of 1942

Adams, Marion Eleanor
Albrook, Louise Brockington
Applegate, Jean Vneome
Berry, Jennette Elizabeth

Buckley, Helen Virginia
Cris, Molly
Chellgren, Sylvia Elaine
Connelly, Mary Virginia
Cor, Elizabeth Hastie
DeCross, Anne Pauline
Damm, Dowie White
Ellis, Caroline Brockman
Fletcher, Fay Heintzel
Fortmann, Marguerite Ann
Hacker, Audrey Wilhelmina
Harrington, Dorothy Isabel
Heuser, Lucy Lammier
Holthausen, Gladys
House, Edna King
Hunter, Betty Whitacre
James, Lucy Elizabeth
Kerby, Evelyn Lucille
Leap, Marjorie Mabel
Lewitt, Marie
Marshall, Margaret Payne
Moore, Mrs. Jane Garnett
Owen, Margjorie Louise
Pierce, Annie Frances
Powelson, Marion Frances
Robins, Mrs. Leona Vivian Hobbs
Sampson, Helen MacLean
Smith, Anne Wallace
Steck, Mary Elizabeth
Surber, Josephine Jane
Taverner, Martha Isabel
Taylor, Anne Scott
Turville, Alice Atwell
Waldins, Emma Ruth
Wilkinson, Margaret Meredith
Wilson, Susan James
Yancey, Julia Odella

Class of 1944

Ames, Ruth Warren
Barrett, Dorothy Lettwich
Blake, Georgia Groves
Brownell, Mrs. Nancy Michael
Brooker
Brown, Julia Reid
Byrd, Helen Thomas
Clarke, Carol Joyce
Constantine, Agnes Theodora
Evans, Willy Elizabeth
Faymonville, Mrs. Ann Elizabeth
Abell
Griffith, Mrs. Custis Winifred
Blake
Hay, Cecil Griffith
Henriques, Ruth Emmeline
Hull, Verna Edith
Jett, Agnes Pratt
Johnson, Esther Virginia
Kadish, Natasha
Lavoro, Olga Julia
Lieberman, Phyllis
Marek, Marjorie Elizabeth
Merrin, Alice May
Montgomery, Louise Ellis
Diaz-Gonzalez, Rose Elizabeth
Pegram, Ellen Octavia
Rawlings, Florence Baker
Reine, Josephine Royall
Schulte, Margaret Kert
Schnitz, Genevieve Estelle
Sieg, Josephine Elizabeth
Snodgrass, Catherine Tyler
Spicer, Ruby Lois
Trevett, Mildred Bell
White, Inez Dillaway
Woodburn, Evelyn Lee

Class of 1945

Armstrong, Cora Virginia
Beale, Mrs. Dorothy Virginia Fourcquan
Bowers, Elizabeth Mahoney
Carrwell, Cera Lohbe
Cofey, Marjorie Marie
Coyer, Marjorie Marie
DeMerritt, Eleanor
Fitzsimmons, Janet Evelyn
Gibson, Betty Llewellyn
Goaffrey, Nixa Coralie Jones
Green, Anne Mayack
Hall, Christine Lee
Herron, Mary Lena
Hudson, Margaret
Irvine, Maudie Tale
Labore, Olga Julia
Leonard, Dorothy Harley
Loutua, Carrie Ann
Doherty, Mrs. Mary Clare McCrane
Miller, Angie Evelyn Trolia
Munn, Beverly
Obadzyeh, Sophia Nikitova
Parkhill, Shirley Ethel
Samuels, Reba Elizabeth
Scott, Lillian Ritchie
Smith, Mrs. Adrienne Louise
Herbert
Smith, Frances Lee
Tilden, Martha Louise
Walden, Susan Harrison
Weiss, Ebon Norma
Willumson, Jean Bayly